Lambda Kappa Sigma's Gift to the Institute of Pharmacy

LAMBDA KAPPA SIGMA presented to the American Pharmaceutical Association at its national convention held in Minneapolis during the latter part of August the gift which we have planned on for so long for the American Institute of Pharmacy. The gift presented was a beautiful visitor's book, containing 500 pages of linen ledger paper, printed and ruled, sewed by hand with linen thread on tapes, bound in full calf, stained in antique style with heavy bands extending over the sides, full gilt edges, marbled paper linings with leather joint, hand tooled in blank on front and back, double mitred back-bone, lettered in gold on back-bone. The following inscription was lettered on the front cover:

Visitor's Book

Presented by

Sorority

Everyone who saw the book said it was lovely; so I know we will all be proud of having this gift in the American Institute of Pharmacy, where it will be seen and used by thousands of pharmacists and many other people each year.

Besides this visitor's book, the sorority plans to present to the American Institute of Pharmacy a stand for this book to rest upon.

The gift was presented by one of our past Grand Presidents, Dr. Katherine Graham. Her presentation speech was as follows:

"The Pharmacy Headquarters Building has been a source of pride and satisfaction to all of us connected with pharmacy. However, we realize that there is much still to be done to completely equip this building, and it is with this in mind that we attempted the completion of a small unit in the building.

"We are very happy that we have had some part in the completion of this building, and, in behalf of Lambda Kappa Sigma, it gives me pleasure to present this leather-bound guest book and its stand to the American Pharmaceutical Association."

Dr. Graham has been a chemist with the Sears Roebuck testing laboratories in Chicago for the past four years.

Grand Officers' Convention Reports

REPORT OF THE GRAND PRESIDENT

CORA CRAVEN

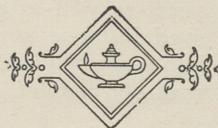

THE SEVENTH biennial convention of Lambda Kappa Sigma may be over, but it is not forgotten. New records were set up in the history of the sorority. Fifteen active and four graduate chapters sent delegates and a goodly number of members from all these chapters traveled to Boston to make the convention a huge success. The council was present one hundred per cent and all this gave a splendid opportunity to accomplish much which we should profit from in the future.

In the near future I hope we will be accepted into the Women's Professional Panhellenic Association so our sorority will be represented at their next convention. If accepted we will be the first pharmaceutical group to become members of this organization. I will report on this just as soon as something definite is done.

Detroit has been chosen as the place for the 1940 convention so let each chapter start at once on the delegate fund so that when the time comes every chapter will be represented. We still have to work for 100% chapter representation and I would like to have the pleasure of announcing this at the next convention. It can be done if each chapter works for it.

These national conventions are a very essential part of the life of our sorority.

Let our slogan for 1938-1940 be "On to Detroit."

REPORT OF THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT

MARY H. GILBERT

I STARTED my first year in office by writing to each of my nine chapters once a month from September to May. During that time I heard from every chapter at least once and from some many times. There were a few minor problems which were straightened out and we derived a great deal of pleasure in exchanging ideas. Some of these ideas were copied by other chapters and brought profit to their treasuries. Two chapters purchased copies of the Pledge Handbook.

During my second year in office I continued writing to every chapter in my district, but closed the correspondence in March instead of in May. I heard from most every chapter, but the record was not as good as the previous year. Again I tried to give the chapters advice and to straighten out their minor problems.

Beta chapter at Albany gave no response so I visited them in May, and had a nice informal visit with the girls. They have only a very few members and are unable to have meetings as a chapter. I expect to have two members present at the convention at some time during the week, and next year to have some real activity in the group.

My office as First Vice-President has been a most pleasant one. The girls in the chapters have co-operated with me to assist me in having a most enjoyable and successful two years in office. I wish to express my sincere thanks to all who have helped to make it so.

REPORT OF THE SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT

RUTH KENT

THE first year started out rather peplless, but as the letters from the chapters came in there was more interest showed. I wrote about sixteen letters during my term. In every letter I wrote I talked life membership in the TRIANGLE, and tried to answer the questions sent in by the chapters. I feel that through constant correspondence with the groups we were able to work out better ideas and to accomplish many things. It was indeed a happy two years for me.

REPORT OF THE THIRD VICE-PRESIDENT

MONICA PERFIELD

WROTE two letters each year, as well as greeting cards, to each of my four chapters, but received just one answer in the spring of '38, to which I replied. Answered all correspondence from the Grand Council. Attended all but one meeting of our chapter, Rho, which meets at least once a month.

REPORT OF THE FOURTH VICE-PRESIDENT

VIRGINIA OSOL

MADAME PRESIDENT and members of Lambda Kappa Sigma sorority, first I would like to thank the other members of the Grand Council and the graduate chapters for the co-operation which I have received while in office. Replies to letters were received from every graduate chapter. Graduate groups are evidently very self sufficient as I was not called upon for any information the entire two years. However, all chapters kept in touch with me and we tried to stimulate more interest in the graduate chapters.

I am happy to say at this time that all graduate chapters report progress in the past two years, and in at least one case, a successful weathering of a storm which threatened the well-being of the chapter. In closing I wish to extend my especial thanks to Cora Craven and Belle Dirstine for the help which they have given me at all times.

REPORT OF THE GRAND EDITOR

BARBARA H. COLLINS

MADAME PRESIDENT, Council members, and sisters in convention:

The report of the Grand Editor of THE BLUE AND GOLD TRIANGLE can be very brief, for her work speaks for itself, be it good or bad.

During the past biennium ten issues of THE BLUE AND GOLD TRIANGLE have been published, the two extra issues having been printed during the summer immediately following the Spokane meeting. Each copy has ranged in space from sixteen to thirty-two pages, the average being twenty pages, four more pages than heretofore.

The material consisted of messages from Grand Council members, chapter reports, special articles written by members on convention proceedings and social activities, interesting trips of members, and other articles of interest to pharmacy and the allied sciences.

The subscriptions have fallen below the expectations of the Editors and we beg to submit the following recommendation to the convention for consideration:

1. It is recommended that the ruling now in effect that each pledge receive a year's subscription to THE TRIANGLE at the time of her pledging, to be paid with the one dollar pledging fee, be enforced in all chapters.

2. It is recommended that all outstanding endowment fund promises be paid in full within the ensuing year and that new subscriptions be solicited.

3. It is recommended that all subscriptions be paid in full at the time of ordering.

4. It is recommended that the five dollar assessment or an advertisement at the rate of five dollars per quarter page for four issues be made compulsory and payable by January 1, of each year.

The Editor wishes to thank especially her assistant, Theresa O'Braitis for the unflinching co-operation she has shown and the heroic piece of work she has done in corresponding with each chapter at least once a month for the past two years.

The thanks of both Editors to all those who have made their work interesting and easier in the past biennium by their prompt response to all requests.

FINANCIAL REPORT OF THE ASSISTANT EDITOR

Theresa E. O'Braitis

DURING the two year period there were 242 yearly subscriptions, 30 single copies, and assessments from 13 chapters.

REPORT OF THE GRAND AUDITOR

JENNIE E. THOMPSON

I HAVE audited the books of the Grand Treasurer and the Assistant Editor and found them to be correct.

REPORT OF THE TWO-YEAR MEMBER-AT-LARGE

NORMA CHIPMAN WELLS

IT HAS been indeed a pleasure to have served the Sorority in this capacity for the term now drawing to a close. With no distinct duty to perform in this office I have endeavored to co-operate with our Grand President and Secretary to the best of my ability; to see the just and fair side of all questions which have presented themselves that I might uphold the confidence placed in me.

REPORT OF THE FOUR-YEAR MEMBER-AT-LARGE

PAULINE E. PRENZEL

DURING the last two years I have written to the chapters, not only in the east, but all over the country and tried to help them to the best of my ability.

Convention Capers

FLORENCE KLECKNER

THE Lambda Kappa Sigmas from here, there, and everywhere landed in Boston on June 23 with many a bustle and bundle and for five days dear old Boston didn't know what to expect next.

The first night was relatively peaceful but on Friday the fun began when a number of the girls, for the first time, met a clam face to face and wrestled with Mr. Lobster—no holds barred. The lobster was a gentleman and accepted his fate with a grin but the clam was made of sterner stuff. He had to be torn from his home, given a shave and a haircut and generally reduced to shreds before allowing himself to be devoured.

Saturday found us recovered from the clams, several business meetings, and a dance and ready to give Boston the once over from a bus window. On our way we stopped to see Boston College of Pharmacy and the writer wonders who the gang was that ate so many refreshments that those bringing up the rear went hungry.

The end of our bus trip was Hartwell Farms and a baked bean supper at which several of our members proved that capacity is entirely unrelated to size and one little girl ate so many beans that they were literally coming out of her ears.

From the bean supper we hastened to Pops—where two of our members distinguished themselves by frantically dashing up to a man whom they thought was a composer for an autograph, only to find he was a janitor.

Sunday morning we struggled and straggled into buses bound for Plymouth and Salem. The ride was a long one and after awhile some one remarked (in broad Bostonian accents)—“We'll have cawrns on our bawtoms” (literal translation—corns on our bottoms). Up popped a voice from nowhere (as good a place as any) with the remark: “Heavens, don't tell me we're having clams at the banquet, I hate them!”

We stopped at Nantasket beach and by chance viewed the latest in toilet tissue trains worn by an unsuspecting woman. On our way home the bus driver was made an honorary member of Lambda Kappa Sigma with a safety pin.

Monday afternoon found us at a sugaring off party, which, to the uninformed, consists of the happy combination of iced maple syrup and sour pickles eaten in succession.

It was rumored that after this party a number of the girls were initiated into Whupsilon chapter.

CONVENTION PERSONALITIES

The girl from Chicago who "worked" her way through the convention by washing and ironing her room-mates what-nots.

Flutter, Flutter, here comes Flat Iron!

The Grand Council member who arrived from Chicago with both knees under her chin. Why?

The Dean who was told he should be glad he married into the sorority.

The girl from New York who locked her room door and then proceeded to sleep so soundly that her room-mates had to get the house detective to let them in.

The member of Benny Goodman's Orchestra who got into a girl's room by mistake.

The girls with the bruises received on the bus ride home from Plymouth—How?

The former Grand Council member from Philadelphia who saw the sun rise every morning over a girdle hanging on the window shade.

Here and There This Summer

Alpha Graduate Chapter, Boston, Massachusetts

Alpha Graduate Chapter has been inactive during the summer. We held our final meeting in July at the home of Mrs. Carolina Galassi. At this meeting we made tentative plans for the fall. Our first meeting is to be the annual Harvest Supper at the College.

We are proud to announce that during this spring and summer three bundles of sunshine arrived, a daughter to Adele Bailou Lang, a daughter to Ruth Johnson Haglund, and a son to Eleanor Lauria Fermano.

I wonder how many of us realize how far back the profession of Pharmacy goes. Physicians and pharmacists were two separate professions even in Bible times. The apothecary, too, is mentioned in the bible on several occasions. In Nehemiah (iii-8) there is mention for example of "Hannaniah, the son of the apothecary." A prescription for anointing oil is also given in the Bible (Exodus xxx-23-5), "Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure myrrh 500 shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even 250 shekels, and of cassia 500 shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of olive oil and hin: and thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compounded after the art of the apothecary: it shall be an holy anointing oil."

This shows how carefully remedies were compounded even in the long ago.

RUTH FLAHERTY

Beta Chapter, Albany, New York

On May 13, 1938, Beta chapter held a meeting for the first time in over a year. When our present members entered we were left with the burden of putting the sorority on its feet. As it was too late in the year to attempt anything, we postponed our meeting until September. We hope to have pledged a number of girls by the time THE BLUE AND GOLD TRIANGLE is issued.

We have a great many activities planned for the coming year and in the next issue will have a more interesting and favorable report.

MARTHA LOTZ

Gamma Graduate Chapter, Chicago, Illinois

On June 12, 1938, at the beautiful Shawnee Country Club in Wilmette, Gamma Graduate Chapter held its annual Birthday Party and Installation of Officers. Mrs. Elvera Dressler was chairman of this very grand party. After a delicious club supper was served, our twenty candles (that's how old we are) on the special birthday cake were lit and we all sang our Happy Birthday Song. It was good too (the cake not the singing). Lovely little perfume bottles were the gifts for the members. The following officers were installed: president, Harriet Lescauski; vice-president, Mildred Schwaba; secretary, Elvera Dressler; treasurer, Ethel Herdlicka. Each officer promised to do her best toward the progress of the chapter, and after many farewells, we departed for the summer.

Our chapter was well represented at the convention in Boston, headed by our delegate Miss Harriet Lescauski. Other members present were: Mrs. Barbara Collins, Miss Thresa O'Braitis, Miss Ethel Herdlicka, Miss Bessie Burda, Mrs. Marie Vacha, Miss Cecilia Furmaniak, Miss Marcella Dargis, Miss Marie Raspis, Miss Stephany Kanapackis. Miss Eleanor Lieninger was delegate of Gamma chapter. We are all anticipating hearing about the Convention and looking forward to seeing some of the movies that were taken.

Mrs. Harriett Kuszlejko has been busy all summer relieving vacationists at various hospitals throughout the city.

On June 13, Theresa O'Braitis' mother and father celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Gamma Graduate Chapter extended their best wishes.

We were very sorry to hear that Bessie Burda, Marie Vacha and their friend Gene met with an accident in Pittsburgh, en route to Boston. We are happy to hear that they were fortunate to come through with only slight bruises. Their trip back home was reported as being very pleasant.

Cupid has struck his bow at three of our members this summer:

Rae Digilio was married to Dr. T. R. Ferguson on May 21. Dr. Ferguson is a graduate of Chicago Dental College. They are living in Hanover, Illinois, where Dr. Ferguson has an established practice.

Sue Champaigne became Mrs. Esposito on June 12. Both being pharmacists, they are conducting their prescription pharmacy very successfully.

Beatrice Zeman changed her name to Mrs. Joseph Korzan on June 18. Beatrice is pharmacist at the Mary Thompson Womens' and Childrens' Hospital.

As we go to press we hear that Dorothy Voight will be married to Lee Mackey on September 11.

We take this opportunity to extend our best wishes to our new brides and to wish them every happiness.

MILDRED SCHWABA

Rho Chapter, Portland, Oregon

Miss Imogene Rhodes, representing Rho chapter at Lambda Kappa Sigma's 25th anniversary convention held in Boston in June of this year, was honored by being elected Grand Treasurer of our national organization. We believe she is well qualified for this office as she is a good worker in our chapter and is very well liked by our members. Miss Monica Perfield, accompanied by her sister Margaret, also attended the convention, visiting friends and relatives in cities en route. Following the return of Miss Rhodes and Miss Perfield from Boston the chapter was entertained by Mrs. Joe Updike and Mrs. Olive Phillips at Briarwood, a suburb of Portland. Miss Rhodes gave us a very interesting account of her trip east, of convention activities, and of many new ways of raising money for sorority needs. At this time we elected officers for the coming year, president, Mary Knezevich; vice-president, Marie Leton; secretary, Mary Lovegrem; treasurer, Irene V. Hetu; and historian, Ada Brinkman.

On August 16 Mrs. Lovegrem gave a baby shower for Mrs. Olive Phillips, in the living quarters behind her father's drug store. A goodly number of our members were present, and with a program of novelty entertainment prepared by our hostess we spent a most enjoyable evening.

On September 1 Rho chapter sponsored a one-day rummage sale which was very successful. We intend to repeat our profitable and fun making carnival of last year at the college sometime this winter.

Our first meeting of the year and installation of officers will take place about the middle of September at the home of Mrs. Clara Paige.

ADA BRINKMAN

Phi Chapter, Indianapolis, Indiana

Since the installation of Phi chapter last May we have held three meetings, two of which were executive and the other a discussion of plans for the Halloween dance. At the first two meetings we rewrote and amended our constitution and outlined a tentative program for the coming year.

With the beginning of the school year we will resume our usual two meetings a month, with the following officers in charge: president, Lois Teeter; vice-president, Ruth Knierim; secretary, Florene Taylor; and treasurer, Mrs. Amy Teeter.

RUTH KNIERIM

Potter Drug Trip

MARGARET GARTHE, Mu Chapter

THE second day of the convention we were advised to meet at the Columbus Avenue Entrance of Hotel Statler and board busses which were chartered by the Potter Drug Company. "All aboard," for the Potter Drug at Malden; four busses leave headquarters. After we arrived we were divided into groups of twenty-five and guides first took us into the cement building in which they kept the tallow in large tanks. We were then ushered into the main building where we were shown the manufacture of the famous Cuticura soap.

The thing which seemed to strike the attention of the group most was the cooled strips of soap being dried and then pressed into cakes. We were also shown the manufacture of the shaving cream and talcum. It was about noon after we had finished going through the plant and the only interest of the group seemed to be dinner.

Lunch was called and we were ushered into a large room which had been prepared for that purpose. After we were seated at the tables, waiters started the hungry group out with clam chowder. They all seemed to know how to eat the chowder but when they brought out the clams and lobsters it was amusing to see some of our group start to bite into the shell and all. After they were shown by their coast sisters how to properly eat them it was amusing to see how fast they disappeared. It was a luscious feed after which Dr. Best, president of the company, addressed us, as also did some of the outstanding and more prominent guests.

We were each given a box of Cuticura Bath Powder (wonder if it was a hint). A happy and satisfied group left, after thanking our gracious hostesses, back to Hotel Statler in the same manner we had arrived to visit this hospitable drug company.

Provincetown Trip—Via "S.S. Steel Pier"

HARRIET LESCAUSKI, Gamma Graduate Chapter

WITH the sun just partially peeping through the clouds, after a three days' ceaseless rain, a group of about twenty girls surrounded the ship Steel Pier for the trip to Provincetown. All girls were in a very happy mood, and hearing voices telling of what a joyous trip this was going to be, made the girls more anxious than ever to get started. Ten o'clock and the whistles sounded for us to get ready. The happy bunch of girls stepped lively onto this boat for this much spoken of "Joyous Trip." Ethel Herdlicka was busy turning her camera on the hilarious group; some singing, some dancing, and the BIG APPLE dancers—Marie Vacha and Cecilia Furmaniak. For an hour the trip really was a pleasant one. The boat sailing on as smoothly as the "Minute Man" train. In a little while the ship-mates began distributing card-board containers of pretty good size. To us, land lubbers, this seemed rather strange, and we inquired what was the purpose of this procedure. Well, it didn't take us very long to find out. You can imagine what these receptacles were for. Yes, that is right. Oh! what a "Joyous" time we did have for the next few hours. Even the entertaining musicians ceased playing and joined the rest of the passengers in feeding the fish. To be sure, this is one day the fish had a treat; and it is the one day we shall remember in our lives. Not even Miss Cora Craven's oranges or lemons could be of any assistance. Land seemed to be the only salvation.

On the return trip, four of the group, Bessie Burda, Marie Vacha, Harriet Lescauski, and Jean were missing. They re-routed their trip by train. They have sworn, "No more boat trips as long as we live." The rest of the girls had to return via the same "Joyous" experience.

This may be a "Joyous Trip" to the Bostonians, but to us Chicagoans it was "Torturous."

Chapter Convention Reports

Alpha Chapter, Boston, Massachusetts

In the fall of 1936, Alpha chapter found itself handicapped by having only four members. However these girls decided to keep up the regular sorority meetings despite their small membership and try to do all they could to build up the chapter. In February the chapter's membership was more than doubled with the initiation of five new girls, Ruth Bahosh, Adeline Lugas, Myrbel Newton, Lily Niemi, and Charlotte Vaitiekus. With the larger number of members, enthusiasm for sorority work grew and several money-making affairs were undertaken. These included selling corsages at the annual Alumni Banquet; holding "silver parties," and selling chances on various articles. The annual June Banquet, held with the graduate chapter at the Hotel Sheraton concluded the activities for the year. At this time Rose Buyniski and Marion Cobb were initiated.

During the summer a committee worked on revising the By-laws and the revisions were presented and accepted at the first meeting in the fall. The changes made included the addition of two sergeants-at-arms to the list of officers, the provision of definite penalties for girls violating sorority rules, and the establishment of a system for taking care of absences and tardiness at meetings. The Active chapter was invited to attend all of the Graduate meetings for this year, and in turn invited the graduates to attend theirs. Mrs. F. L. Galassi was elected chapter advisor for the year.

In October the Graduate chapter sponsored the annual Harvest Supper which was held in the foyer of the college. At this time we were pleased to welcome Mrs. C. W. Bauer (Ruth Litton Bauer), honorary member who was transferred from Theta chapter. In November we asked the graduates if we could take over the formal initiation which they had been good enough to put on when our membership was so small. They readily agreed and we immediately made plans for the purchase of new satin robes which were worn for the first time at the Convention. The Bazaar, held in co-operation with the Graduate chapter in the lobby of the college was the most "different" and successful affair of the year. Besides having a good time we realized a nice profit. Upon coming back from the Christmas vacation we were greeted by the announcement of Mabelle Parkin's marriage and her resignation from college. Charlotte Vaitiekus took over Mabelle's duties and has done a remarkable job. In March we celebrated Hygeia Day by having Dr. Bertha Offenbach as speaker. Her topic was Mental Diseases, and we were all greatly interested in her address. Around about April we held a rush party in a slightly different manner. We took box lunches and canoed up the Charles River to a suitable picnic spot. There we stopped, ate, and enjoyed the day. The success of the party is evidenced by the fact that four of the five rushees were pledged. Our final affair was a luncheon held at the Hotel Kenmore. At this luncheon Charlotte Vaitiekus, retiring President, and Edith Regan, graduating Senior were presented with pendants bearing the sorority seal. At the same luncheon installation of officers took place and the following girls were pledged to the sorority, Rachel Burns, Carolyn Cangiano, Beatrice Gosselin, and Jacqueline Faucher.

In between these social activities, we have tried to raise money in various ways. Personal labels were sold, a Merck's Index was raffled, and candy and other necessities were sold from a locker in the girl's room. In this way we have managed to pay off all of our debts to the Grand Council, have a hundred per cent subscription to the TRIANGLE, and to put away enough money to provide for one night's entertainment at the Convention, pay for our robes, and engage two "chapter" rooms at the Statler for the duration of the Convention. We are looking forward to a good year for Alpha chapter and hope that we are able to keep the standards set for the chapter by our founders.

MYRBEL NEWTON

Alpha Graduate Chapter, Boston, Massachusetts

Since the last convention the following has been accomplished. During the 1936-37 season, Mrs. Mary Gilbert was president of the chapter. Several business meetings were held in the homes of the various members. At these meetings plans for the Silver Jubilee convention were started. A theatre party, Harvest supper, Beano party, Bridge party and Penny sale made up the social and money raising events for that year. At the banquet held in June 1937, Mrs. F. L. Galassi was installed as president. Under her administration business meetings have been held monthly at the Statler Hotel and plans were formulated for the forthcoming convention. During the past month, weekly business meetings were held at the Hotel Statler. The chapter held some social affair each month for the benefit of the Convention Fund; they were as follows:

October—Harvest Supper and Auction—Mildred Dow, chairman.

November—Rummage Sale—Ruth Flaherty, chairman.

December—Christmas Bazaar, Supper and Dance—Mary Gilbert, Mabelle Parkin, and Adele Lang, co-chairmen.

January—Supper and Bridge at the Colonial Club Cooking School—Estelle Arzooonian, chairman.

February—Beano party at the home of Ruth Flaherty.

March—Bridge party at the home of Mrs. Galassi.

April—Penny sale at the home of Mary Gilbert.

May—Dessert Bridge at Willette McKeever's Dancing Studio.

June—Radio broadcast on which the voices of Eleanor Rogers, Mildred Dow, Gladys Driscoll, and Carolina Galassi, were heard.

Today, June 24, 1938 sees the culmination of all our efforts and planning, this, our 25th anniversary convention.

CAROLINA GALASSI

Gamma Chapter, Chicago, Illinois

1936. The first event of the year was our "Get-Acquainted Luncheon," with the new freshman girls and the wives of faculty members as our guests. Our Halloween party was a mixed affair with Kappa Psi men at their fraternity house. The Christmas Party sponsored by the Graduate chapter was held at the St. Clair Hotel.

1937. During the Christmas holidays a card party was held at the home of Stephany Kanapackis, being both socially and financially successful. In January a tea was held in the library of the college for the prospective pledges. A turkey raffle was held to raise money, one of our own girls being the winner—and it wasn't a put up job either! During March we gave a moving picture show with members and friends donating their own films. There being no pledges the theatre party was cancelled. Our last affair of the year was a luncheon for the graduating members. Since we had so few girls in the chapter we joined Gamma Graduates for their meetings for the following year. Our Halloween party was held in the great outdoors with roasted wieners and many other good things to eat. Santa visited us at the Chicago Woman's club in December with gifts for all.

1938. Our raffles seemed to be an easy way to raise our Convention Fund and this year we offered three prizes. Thanks to the splendid cooperation of the Graduates we realized a nice profit. Hygeia Day was celebrated at the Great Northern Hotel with Mr. Hynes as guest speaker; refreshments followed. Something new and different was tried by the two chapters in March, a Monte Carlo party, with Marie Vacha as its capable chairman. Games of chance were played and the prizes, over a hundred in number, were donated by the drug houses and the girls. The season was climaxed by a buffet supper at the Shawnee Country Club on Gamma's 20th birthday. All the details were smoothly handled by Chairman Elvira Dressler and her committee.

ELEANOR LEININGER

Gamma Graduate Chapter, Chicago, Illinois

Gamma Graduate Chapter extends its greetings and best wishes for a most successful Silver Jubilee Convention. At our first meeting after the Spokane Convention, Gamma Graduate girls were imbued with a keen desire to make their chapter one of the best in the country and began a program towards that end by completely reorganizing their roll call. All delinquent and lax members were weeded out with the application card system inaugurated at the last convention. The report of the delegate, Bessie Burda, was heard with interest.

With the Convention Delegate Fund as our goal, we started working out a series of parties to raise funds. During the past two years we have held card parties, known as Telephone Parties, sponsored by two or three members in someone's home. The hostesses donated the refreshments and whatever prizes they wished to give. Then the best scores of the evening of the different games were telephoned to the chairman, hence the name, Telephone Parties, for a final drawing, the winner to receive five dollars in cash. We find these parties pay well and are less work than large general card parties.

Our annual Christmas party is always looked forward to with pleasure for they are sure to be novel and entertaining. The 1936 affair was a lingerie show, depicting styles from way back when to the present day. Our own girls served as mannequins and Mrs. Barbara Collins originated this unique show. This past year, 1937, we had a dinner party with the reindeers ushering in Santa Claus (Alice Sewicki to most of you) with a big bag of gifts for all. For Hygeia Day we plan a professional program with an outside speaker. This year we had as our guests non-sorority women pharmacists of the city. Mrs. Mabel Kettering served as chairman, and our speaker was Mr. Hynes, who gave us a few reminiscences of his work in the Customs service and how pharmacy and chemistry play a part in placing duty on imported articles and means of detecting substitutes and smuggled goods.

Our biggest affair this year was a "Monte Carlo Party" held at the Great Northern Hotel on April 20. We were rather skeptical about putting on one of these parties, but our capable chairman, Marie Vacha, convinced us effectively and conclusively that it could be done. Our treasury shows the results of her conviction. Several Theatre parties were held during the two year period as a means of enjoyment, as well as swelling the exchequer. One of our nicest programs of the year is the Mother-Daughter party held sometime near Mother's Day in May. Our mothers and friends are our guests and are presented with corsages and a lovely program of entertainment is planned by the chairman. It is our one opportunity a year to show our mothers and friends how much we appreciate their loyal interest and support, and we make the most of the day.

The year is always closed with our Birthday banquet in June. This year it was held at the Shawnee Country Club in Wilmette on our first day of sunshine after record breaking thunderstorms, and between the festive air, the nice weather and the enthusiasm of the impending Convention, the affair couldn't have been anything but wonderful. And it was, thanks to the chairman Elvira Dressler and Mildred Schwaba.

HARRIET LESCAUSKI

Delta Chapter, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Delta chapter was inactive during the years 1934-35. It was reorganized in May, 1936, with an active membership of seven girls. An election of officers was held at this meeting, and Miss Betty Haeckler of Pittsburgh was elected president.

During the last two years, the chapter raised money by candy sales, dances, roller skating parties, and raffles. In this way, the treasury has been built up to a point where the chapter is able to meet all of its financial obligations.

The social life of the chapter has been made up of informal teas, luncheons, picnics, and theater and bridge parties. In 1937, Tau chapter of Duquesne University and Delta chapter entertained each other with a tea and a luncheon.

In January of 1937, three freshmen were pledged and received into membership by the chapter. This brought the number of active members up to ten.

In January of 1938, five freshmen were pledged and received by the chapter, making a total active membership of fifteen. However, in May of this year, three seniors were graduated, leaving twelve members active in the chapter at the present time.

PEGGY WADE

Epsilon Chapter, Baltimore, Maryland

Meetings for the year 1936-37 were started in September, and sixteen meetings were held at the homes of the various members. Dr. and Mrs. A. G. DuMez entertained the chapter, and we were privileged to meet Dr. Eder of Switzerland, who was touring the Pharmacy schools of the world. Our activities of the year consisted of entertaining the freshman girls, sponsoring a radio broadcast, several card parties and raffles, and the initiation of three new members. Mildred Schlaen was recipient of the honors of the freshman class; and the chapter picture was placed in the college year book.

The year 1937-38 had for its main objective the making of a bigger and better Epsilon chapter. We were able to initiate two new members, and held seventeen official meetings. Our program was about the same with the addition of a campfire gathering and a Spring Formal. Our annual banquet closed the year with our hopes and ambitions fully realized.

SHIRLEY M. GLICKMAN

Zeta Graduate Chapter, San Francisco, California

Zeta Graduate Chapter sends greetings to the Lambda Kappa Sigma Convention. Our activities for the year 1936-37 in brief are as follows—a dinner honoring Dean and Mrs. A. O. Mickelsen of Portland, Oregon, en route with their daughter to the Alpha Phi Alpha Convention in Texas; two pledge parties for Julia Armanini, Helen Raciborski, Lenita Thomas, and Evelyn White; a program of speaker and music for Founders' Day, and formal initiation for Hygeia Day; a card party jointly sponsored by Zeta and the Ladies Auxiliary of San Francisco. Zeta Graduate Chapter voted to combine several offices under one grouping such as: Vice-president and Reporter, Secretary and Treasurer. On May 17, 1937, a dinner, sponsored by all the pharmaceutical fraternities, associations, etc., was given honoring Frank T. Green. At this time the graduates were also honored, Lambda Kappa Sigma being well represented. Lenita Thomas was awarded the Honor Key, and Dorothy Harshner received honorable mention. Professor Green was made Professor Emeritus. Miss Alice Green, his daughter and an honorary member of Zeta, was presented with a corsage by the chapter. May also calendared a whist game at the home of Norma and Clara Wells in Alameda. The deaths of Eleanor Cleveland Bigelow, Constance Kidwell, and Mrs. H. M. Simmons were officially reported. The latter was an honorary member.

In the fall of 1937 it was decided to tax all life members two dollars annually, while the other members paid six dollars. An amendment was made to cover this change. Also the active and graduate chapters were to act separately with inter-representation. Rushing and initiation of two members was carried out during the early winter. Emily Uffman reported on the Panhellenic. It was learned that a chapter could not join the Panhellenic as an individual group, that it must be done through the national organization. The spring "Jinx Party" was held at the home of Emily Uffman in San Mateo, with Annette Fouch, Phyllis McDonald and Joyce Watt as the willing victims.

The annual senior breakfast, called the spring breakfast because of a lack of seniors was held at the Lake Merritt Hotel in Oakland. Zeta Active and Zeta Graduate chapters extend an invitation to the Convention to hold their 1940 biennial in San Francisco. We shall be happy to have you as our guests and have many interesting places to show you. The idea a convention will unify our membership to work for a common objective.

ELVIRA SILVIERA

Eta Chapter, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Eta chapter sends greetings to Lambda Kappa Sigma in Convention. At our first meeting of the year, 1936-37, our President, Mary Barnisky, gave an interesting report on the Spokane Convention. In dire need of new initiation gowns we chanced off fifty-cent gifts at ten cents a chance at each meeting throughout the year. On October 10 we entertained the freshman girls at a "Kiddies Party" in the museum of the college; while our Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. E. Fullerton Cook in Swarthmore. During the Christmas Assembly we chanced off gifts donated by the Women's Club and found it so profitable a source of income that it was repeated with like success at the Easter Assembly. During February and March we pledged and initiated six new girls. Our annual dinner dance with Eta Graduate Chapter in April climaxed a most successful year; with the exception of the party for the Senior members at Whitman's, which was followed by installation of officers for the ensuing year.

Our second year of activities, with Dorothy Kleckner as president, opened with a scavenger hunt and wiener roast for the freshman girls in October. We made plans for several affairs which were cancelled following the death of our beloved Dean, Charles H. LaWall. We joined Eta Graduates again in an informal dance at the college in February. We continued to chance off gifts and finally achieved our objective of new robes which were used in the initiation of two new members at a dinner at the Cathay Tea Gardens the latter part of February. During the Easter Assembly we raffled a cash prize, realizing an appreciable sum. Miss Betty Kessler was hostess to the chapter at a dinner at her home in Drexel Hill in March. Our dinner dance with the Graduate Chapter at the Hotel Walton in April proved to be more of a social than a financial success. We closed our year with the entertainment of the Seniors at Fairfax Hotel, followed by installation of officers.

ELIZABETH WAGNER

Eta Graduate Chapter, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Madame President and members of Lambda Kappa Sigma, greetings from Eta Graduate Chapter in Philadelphia.

During the past two years Eta Graduate has had many and varied activities—we opened our first meeting in 1936 with a report of the Spokane Convention by Virginia Osol, and we considered the various points and discussed them. Our Christmas Party was held at the college, where gifts were exchanged and refreshments served. In April 1937, we presented a Fashion show, entitled, "Betty Co-ed Around the Clock." The members modeled college costumes for all occasions. This event was financially and socially a big success. With Eta active we held our annual dance and dinner at the Ritz Carlton in May.

The new officers for the years 1937-39 were: Dolores Lorenzoni, president; Florence Kleckner, vice-president; Virginia Osol, treasurer; Jo May Zeisig, corresponding secretary. The new officers were full of enthusiasm and decided to hold a swimming party and Dutch lunch at Garden Court, the home of Virginia Osol. On Alumni Day at the college, Eta Graduate held a reunion dinner which was attended by a great many graduates.

At our first meeting in 1937 a new by-law was passed reducing the annual dues from $4 to $3 and a new place for our meetings was adopted. Every month two girls were responsible for providing entertainment after the business meeting. The first Friday in February saw the two chapters co-operating in sponsoring a dance at the college for the purpose of raising money for the delegate fund. The year was climaxed with our annual dinner dance held with the active chapter on May 8, 1938 at the Hotel Walton.

FLORENCE KLECKNER

Theta Chapter, Omaha, Nebraska

Theta chapter was forced to remain comparatively inactive during 1936-37 because of the small membership and lack of pledging material. Our first meeting consisted of a report of the Spokane Convention by our President Gerry Stockert, and our second one a discussion of plans to retain our chapter charter. Several other meetings were held and later in the year Geraldine Stech and Betty Olderog were pledged and initiated. Election of officers followed the picnic which closed the year's activities. In 1937 under the leadership of our new president, Geraldine Stech; vice-president, Gerry Stockert; secretary, Betty Olderog, and ever-faithful Ruth Kent as treasurer, Theta's prospects for a successful year looked much brighter. In October Geraldine Stech and Betty Olderog were elected to the Inter-Sorority Council, the governing body of all fraternities on the campus, Betty serving as Treasurer of the Council. Later in the fall Betty Olderog was chosen Homecoming Queen.

Mrs. Hugh Gerold, honorary member, entertained the members at a Christmas Buffet supper, at which time Mary Workman was pledged with traditional candlelight ceremony. Several candy sales during the year added to the treasury. In the way of educational entertainment résumés of parliamentary law and the sorority by-laws were given by Genevieve Krause Rauterkus and Olga Yoder Arnold respectively. A most interesting paper on Vitamin B research was given by Gerry Stockert. The girls of the Pharmacy school were in charge of the April meeting of the Creighton University Pharmaceutical Association, "Musical Therapy" was chosen as the theme for the program and was well presented. Theta is also distinguished for having made the Bluejay, college yearbook. At the fourteenth annual Pharmacy Day two of our members were awarded achievement prizes: Geraldine Stech placed second in the display of manufacturing pharmacy sample cases, and Betty Olderog was awarded membership in the Alpha Phi Alpha for outstanding scholarship in the department of biological sciences. With plans for a chicken dinner under way, Theta chapter activities were suspended for the summer.

BETTY OLDEROG

Iota Chapter, Norman, Oklahoma

1937—Four members and their sponsor, Miss Griffith, started the year. They co-operated with Kappa Psi and Phi Delta Chi in a get-acquainted party held for the new students. A luncheon held in the Woman's Building celebrated Founder's Day. After the first nine weeks two girls were found eligible and were pledged. Iota chapter had charge of the Woman's entertainment of the fourth annual convention of the Oklahoma University Pharmaceutical Association, holding a luncheon and entertainment for the thirty guests attending. Iota members won the award for the highest ranking Freshman and Sophomore, also one member was asked to read her original paper on Cosmetics before the State Pharmaceutical Convention at Oklahoma City—all of which we are justly proud to relate.

Initiation was held for the two pledges, followed by a banquet and a visit to Mrs. Johnson, wife of our Dean who had recently returned from the hospital. Mrs. Johnson as you know wrote our Ritual. The sponsoring of a picture show took care of our Convention Fund.

1938—Five active members started this year, and on October 14 we again celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon. At the fifth annual convention of the Oklahoma University Pharmaceutical Association Iota was awarded a gold loving cup for having the highest grade average of the professional fraternities, competing with Kappa Psi and Phi Delta Chi, their average being 2.2 or B plus. Members of Iota also won awards for highest ranking Sophomore, Junior, and Senior; also for best student in Pharmacology, best paper on Commercial Pharmacy and for best "all around girl." At the Convention Lambda Kappa Sigma was in charge of entertainment for the Alumni luncheon held at the Waldorf room of the Union.

On March 30, initiation and a banquet was held for seven pledges. On May 3 Iota chapter honored their oldest member, Dr. Alma J. Neil, for her outstanding scientific work. A week previously she had announced at a National Physiology meeting in Baltimore her discovery of the cause of sleeping sickness. She received national recognition for her work, her picture with an article appearing in Time magazine and newspapers throughout the country. Iota is very proud to count her among its members. Our farewell picnic was held on May 23 for members and friends. Officers for the ensuing year were elected, and the new office of corresponding secretary established.

Again we raised our Convention Fund with a picture show. All the girls in our school are now Iota members with the exception of one pledge. In addition to our above mentioned activities we helped with a radio broadcast, monthly luncheons have been held throughout the two years, rush parties sponsored and a Christmas party this year at the home of one of the members. For the past two years a member of Iota has been secretary for the O. U. Ph. A. Outstanding members of Iota are as follows:

Ovis Carpenter, ranking senior, best in Pharmacology and Pharmacy courses and a member of Rx.

Hilda Ann Mehrenberg, B or better group of entire university, Rx member and recipient of Rx plaque award for ranking sophomore.

Harriet Hunkapillae, Woman's golf champion of the University.

Esther Blackmer, ranking junior and outstanding woman in Pharmacy school, Mortar Board, Rx member, Junior Women's Honor group, and Riding club.

ESTHER BLACKMER

Lambda Graduate Chapter, Los Angeles, California

On August 25 both actives and graduates were guests of Miss Ethel Gregory at a beach party and weenies were baked on the sands of beautiful Santa Monica under the rays of a romantic full moon. And did we enjoy ourselves, a few even venturing into the briny deep to work up an appetite for the abundant spread. Many thanks, Ethel. The first meeting of the year was held at Leone Sandhams home, where we discussed the rushing events for the new girls at college. After the meeting our hostess served doughnuts and cider and the balance of the evening was turned into a social gab-fest. In October the first rushing party was held, a tea where all the prospective pledges were introduced, and each presented with a corsage. Rushees were further entertained at a dinner in Chinatown, where Suki Yaki, that delicious Japanese dinner, was enjoyed by all who attended. Mrs. Willard Smith was pledged as an honorary member of Lambda chapter on October 26. Both active and graduate members were guests of Isabel Freericks for the annual Christmas party in December, where we enjoyed the gifts Santa brought and the lovely repast served by our hostess. Mrs. Smith was formally initiated at the Elks Temple in February, following a dinner. Both chapters participated in this successful event. Our final meeting of the year was a surprise "stork shower" for our President, Mildred Irons, who expected the blessed event in June. She was delighted with the beautiful and useful gifts she received. Election of officers for the coming year took place at this meeting also.
