Message

Greetings to you as you open the pages of the convention issue of the TRIANGLE. A few months ago, we were gathered in Seattle planning and pondering upon questions brought before the delegates. By now the delegates have reported to you on those questions and on the state of the sorority in general. The convention minutes have been sent to you so that you can follow the business transacted and now the social activities have been written up and are appearing in this issue for your reading pleasure.

As your new Grand President, it shall be my deepest wish to help incorporate all of the recommendations put forth at the convention. I deem it a great honor to be given this privilege and responsibility. I assure you that I shall do everything within the limits of my capabilities to justify the faith and confidence you have placed upon me. I welcome the opportunity to serve and express this hope that I shall be able to add, in some small measure, to the great contributions, to the betterment of our sorority and to its growth which have been made by my predecessors in this office.

On October 14, Lambda Kappa Sigma has started its forty-fifth year. While we are bringing in new blood through rushing and pledging, which is so essential to the growth and continuation of our sorority, let us not forget the alumna. It is the duty of every member to become an active alumna member. As an alumna you can render professional service to your collegiate sisters. Every college senior should give serious thought to remaining active after her graduation; she should make definite plans to join with an alumnae chapter immediately. Don't sever the contact, stay in touch; we need you! The Grand Council seeks out its active members for office material on the national level. If no alumnae chapter exists in your locality, steps should be taken to organize one. Remember — "Once a member, always a member".

One Hundred and Fifth Convention

The Biltmore Hotel Los Angeles, California

The week of April 20 to April 25 was indeed a busy and exciting one for us in Los Angeles. The annual American Pharmaceutical Convention was held in our fair city and many of us tried to work and attend the interesting sessions at the hotel. It was quite exciting for us to have met so many of our sorority sisters as well as the dignitaries of the American Pharmaceutical Association.

On Friday, April 25, 1958, a luncheon was held at the Commons on the campus of the University of Southern California — jointly planned by the Lambda collegiate and alumnae chapters. Each member and guest was asked to introduce herself and to say a few words. We were indeed honored to have had Miss Ethel Herdlicka our Grand Treasurer — represent the Grand Council. We had the pleasure of having Dr. Esther Hall, who is a member of Kappa Epsilon Pharmaceutical Sorority and a professor of pharmaceutical administration at the University of Texas, and her daughter as our guests.

Since the biennial convention of Lambda Kappa Sigma was to be held on the West Coast (Seattle) in a few months, many of the girls couldn't attend both conventions. Therefore the attendance here especially at the luncheon — was not as good as expected.

We enjoyed having all those who attended the luncheon and it was an extreme pleasure to meet them.

We want to thank all those persons who helped to make this luncheon possible. Hope to see many of you again soon.

CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS

GRAND COUNCIL DAY

Julia Pishalski

Omicron Alumnae Chapter

Pre-convention meetings of the Grand Council officers and the Honorary Advisers are almost the most important part of any Lambda Kappa Sigma Convention. After two years of writing to each other and taking care of business by mail, the officers have this opportunity of meeting together and personally discussing the many problems that confront any organization. Beside the business, there is also the personal anticipation of meeting with old friends and cementing new friendships more firmly together.

There were eight Grand Council officers and three Honorary Advisers that gathered together for Brunch in the Coronet Room of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel on Saturday morning, July 26. We were the guests of the Chi chapters and enjoyed a very lovely breakfast of ham and eggs. Gallons of coffee were consumed as we plunged into the business on hand and set up the business agenda for the general convention meetings. A call for recess took us up to the lovely Hawaiian Suite. We had a preview of what the Hospitality Suite of the Chi chapters looked like. The decor was very lovely. While there we had an opportunity to meet with several of the local committee members including the general chairman of the convention, Marilyn Palmer. Committee members present were: Joan Estep, Jean Hanson, Billie Kutzero, Ina Jenkins, Marilyn Briggs, and Pat Tanac, who is also a Grand Council member. We also met Ann Faber, who did such a wonderful job with newspaper publicity throughout the entire convention.

We returned back to the Coronet Room for more business, taking off only enough time to have dinner and back to business again. At eleven that evening, we felt we had put in a good day's work and called a halt to our session. With things pretty well in hand, we were all looking forward to meeting with the delegates at the formal opening of the convention the next day.

OPENING LUNCHEON

Edith Plucinski

Gamma Alumnae Chapter

Betty McDermott — Gamma Collegiate, Donna Michael — Alpha Iota Collegiate, and I arrived at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel about 8:30 A.M. on Sunday, July 27.

Harriet Lescauski, Cecelia Furmaniak and Wanda Sponder were waiting for me with all the information in regard to attending Mass. We taxied to St. James' Cathedral for 9 o'clock Mass. We walked back. The city is built on steep hills, where a good heart is a must for hiking, excellent brakes are essential for driving, and very good handbrakes are needed for parking!

When the room situation had been attended to, we registered on the Mezzanine Foyer. We met Marilyn Palmer, the Convention Chairman, a charming person bubbling with sparkle and vitality, and Jean Hanson, and Ruth Ghormley, sisters, and two of the most obliging and hospitable people I have ever known. Jean is the typical "Miss Sweden", tall, willowy, very blonde, blue eyed, and beautiful.

The entire wing of the mezzanine was reserved for us. We had the Plaza Room, and the Fifth Avenue Room directly across for meetings.

Registration was at 11:00 A.M. and lunch was at 2:00 P.M.

We had what the program referred to as a "Northwest Buffet". My! What a menu! Luscious ham, roast beef, vegetable salads, fruit salads, sea food salads, potato salads, molded salads of all descriptions, hot rolls, relishes of all kinds — truly a gourmet's dream.

Our Invocation was, of course, our Sorority Prayer, led by Imogene Piper. We were warmly welcomed by Marilyn Palmer and Imogene Piper. Dr. L. W. Rising, Professor of Pharmacy, and Dr. Jack Orr, Dean of the College of Pharmacy, both of the University of Washington, were the scheduled guest speakers. Dr. and Mrs. Rising did not attend because of all things, they both had the "flu". The temperature must have been 95 degrees in the shade, so we certainly sympathized with them. Dr. Orr spoke on the changes women Pharmacists have encountered in the last 25 years in numbers, attitudes, and opportunities. Only 25 years ago most colleges had less than 1% female enrollment and the women graduates met opposition and prejudice on all sides. Today, in many Pharmacy colleges in this country more than 25% of the enrollment is women and they find ready employment on graduation. I can vouch for some of his statements. I am by no means an "old timer", yet even at the time I graduated my proud announcement that I was a Pharmacist met with surprise, disbelief, or a "hrrrrrrup!" (This from the elders of the Medical Profession) He spoke of prejudice against women becoming, through the years, actual preference for women in many pharmaceutical fields, i.e. hospitals, professional pharmacies, drug manufacturing plants, research. Dr. Orr brought memories to many of our Sisters long in the profession an appreciation of the situation today to the more recent graduates students. Dr. Orr's talk was very witty, yet kind, and his sense of humor certainly showed through.

The opening conference session was scheduled for 3:30 P.M. The password was used for all business sessions. Cora Craven was appointed Chaplain by the Grand Council and we had a Memorial ceremony consisting of candle lighting, prayer, and Biblical quotations in memory of our Sisters who have left us in the last biennium and our deceased Founders.

Judging from the Chapter reports it seems that fund-raising, collection of dues, and relations between Collegiate and Alumnae Chapters are the main topics of discussion and fields in which much work needs to be done.

Our Conference Session went well and left us with a sense of having accomplished much. There was a very large non-delegate attendance.

The Grand council met from 5:30 to 7:30 that evening, but the rest of us were free. We were all provided with free passes good for Sunday, Monday, or Tuesday evening to the downtown movie theatres. Many chose to see "South Pacific" that evening. Others chose to go to the Hawaiian Suit on the twelfth floor to "bat the breeze!" It was a comfortable, convenient suite. Punch and light refreshments were usually available, plus a veritable fount of information, hospitality, and congenial company. It was our get acquainted spot and I, for one, formed several friendships I feel will be permanent.

I met Grace Sakai of our hostess chapter, a dainty, soft spoken, likeable girl of Japanese descent. I told her I had promised a Japanese friend I would visit her parents in Seattle. She immediately volunteered to make the visit with me. She drove and we spent an unforgettable evening. We ate fortune cookies and were treated to koto solos and Japanese singing to the accompaniment of koto and violin duets. The koto is a long, narrow, harp-like Japanese instrument made of a special, very light-weight, beautifully grained wood. It is placed flat on the floor with the strings up when played. We returned rather late and I went to the hostess suite where cordiality, punch, and chatter was the order of the day. After midnight we decided to call it a day and turn in. The youngsters? No, I do not know when their day ended!

SEAFAIR LUNCHEON

Theresa Krautheim

Delta Collegiate Chapter

It was hot on Monday morning, unusual for Seattle, we're told. At nine o'clock, the combined alumnae and collegiate chapters met for the first conference of the day. The groups then divided for informal sessions to talk out our respective problems. We've discovered these sessions to be very beneficial to both groups.

Following the first session, we examined a display of jewelry set up by L. G. Balfour, Co. and then went to a luncheon sponsored by McKesson and Robbins, Inc. In accordance with the big celebration of the Seafair that started August 1, in Seattle, we had a SEAFAIR LUNCHEON complete with Captain Kidd and Davey Jones. These two unpredictable pirates passed out kisses and "I've been had by a Seafair Pirate" buttons. Imogene Piper and Marilyn Palmer were dubbed Honorary Seafair Pirates, two of the first to receive this honor. Following a short talk on the history of McKesson and Robbins in Seattle, Mr. Jack Gordon of Greater, Seattle, Inc., gave a resume of the activities of the Seafair. After a delicious lunch we reconvened for the afternoon session, again a divided session, later to be joined for recapitulation of the activities of each group.

The evening was free for the ladies and it was spent in shopping, sight-seeing, movies, or just taking in the town. The hospitality suite was open in the evening for the purpose of relaxation of the women and a chance to better acquaint ourselves with our sisters from other chapters. Late in the evening we all retired to rest for another busy day, Tuesday, the third day of convention.

Mu Chapter

The day began for the conventioners with a delicious "Ranch Breakfast", held in the Cascade Room at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel. Following this a business session was held in the Plaza Room.

Following the luncheon a brief business session was held. At that time it was decided to continue holding Regional Meetings.

At 4:15 P.M. that afternoon the group met for a water tour and Salmon Barbecue. Large busses transported everyone at convention to the dock. There a large boat took the crowd among picturesque islands on a trip that lasted several hours. At a most inviting setting, among huge trees a salmon barbecue supper was held.

Entertainment by an Indian family, composed of father, mother, small boy and girl, and even a baby in arms, consisted of singing and dancing. This proved delightful. Returning on the boat, the group enjoyed much singing, talking and laughter. The high light of the boat trip at night, with the weather nice and warm and balmy, was returning thru the locks, which are known as the Locks in the Lake Washington Canal. These connect Lake Washington and Lake Union with Puget Sound, and in turn Puget Sound goes out into the Pacific Ocean. It was a unique and quite unusual experience to see such large ships, many ocean going, going thru such a small amount of water as in the canal, which is accomplished by gates opening up to allow the water level to rise to accomodate such ships. When the water reaches a certain level the gates are opened and the ships pass through. It was a sleepy, tired, but very happy group that returned to the Hotel at 11:30 that night.

LUNCHEON AND FORMAL BANQUET

Barbara A. Fitzpatrick
Alpha Alumnae Chapter

On Thursday morning once again Lambda Kappa Sigma met in the conference room for a brief meeting, then we adjourned to attend a luncheon sponsored by Mu Chapter.

What a pleasant surprise! Miniature gaily colored Japanese umbrellas decorated every table. At each place stood a small white card with bold Japanese characters that we later found spelled out "Hello". Beside each plate lay a pair of bamboo chopsticks. Of course there were the more conventional utensils for the meek, but most of us enjoyed picking our way through a very good Japanese meal with our chopsticks. In fact, we took them home as trophies rather than souvenirs.

Members of Chi Collegiate and Alumnae Chapters at Luncheon

While sipping our coffee, we were entertained by a Japanese dancer whose diminutive beauty was enhanced by the exotic costumes of the traditional dances. Thanks again to Mu Chapter for planning with such imagination.

Our afternoon business meeting over, everyone met in the lobby for our formal photograph.

At 6:00 P.M. we gathered informally in the Fifth Avenue Room for cocktails and conversation. Already people were voicing regrets at leaving friends, old and new.

After our reception, slowly we entered the Cascade Room for our final banquet. The delicate muted colors of the cut flowers that bedecked the tables complimented the tones of the formal dresses. Ina Jenkins, a former Miss Personality awarded the personality crown to Rose Mary Crimaldi of Buffalo, New York.

While eating our fruit cups, we heard a commotion at the door. In burst a simulated "flivver" driven by a bespectacled gay blade (Mildred Das of Detroit). From beneath her wide brimmed hat beamed a gay passenger (Helen Wirpsza). Amid the beeping of horns as they maneuvered between tables, the two extended to all Lambda Kappa Sigma an invitation to hold the 1960 convention in Detroit.

Adele Lowe, Virginia Osol and Amelia DeDominicis at Reception before Formal Banquet

Ina Jenkins of Seattle and Miss Personality of 1946 presented the Crown and a bouquet of roses to Rose Marie Grimaldi our Miss Personality of the Convention.

After an excellent steak dinner, Julia Pishalski awarded the Efficiency Cup to Chi Chapter for the third time. Alpha Iota and Alpha Mu received honorable mention. Next Phi Alumnae received the Efficiency Gavel for the third time also. Chi Alumnae received honorable mention.

Helen Wirpsza and Mildred Das extend Invitation for 1960 Convention to be held in Detroit.

Our Grand President, Imogene Piper gave her farewell address and then installed the new officers. The formal rites over, everyone mingled to offer congratulations to our new officers, farewells to all our friends, and our eternal thanks to Chi Chapters for making our convention of 1958 one of the most successful and our memory of this week one of the most pleasant.

POST CONVENTION TRIP TO VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA

Rose Tarloski
Tau Alumnae Chapter

With a beautiful sunny day in sight, the Princess Marguerite, a Canadian Pacific steamship, sailed out of Seattle's harbor, at 8:00 A.M. to Victoria Is., B.C., with 33 Lambs among the other passengers. The brisk sea air and view of the rugged coastline outlined by the snowcapped Olympics, made the four hour voyage enjoyable. At noon, she dropped anchor in Victoria, where we proceeded by bus to the Net Loft and a delicious Smorgasbord. Then we had a conducted tour through the business section, seeing the Empress Hotel, down colorful streets with flower baskets hanging from each street lamp, the Parliament buildings, and out the Saanich Peninsula, to the world-renowned Butchard gardens.

The gardens are a 25 acre fairyland of flowers. Once an old limestone quarry, now 4 gardens in 1, the fabulous Sunken gardens, English Rose, Italian, and Japanese gardens, — nestled among sheltering hills — is an unforgettable experience to behold. No brush or camera could quite capture the panorama of nature's beauty awaiting you here. How true when they "say it with flowers" or "flowers are words which even a babe may understand." This is one of Victoria's outstanding attractions cultivated with 50 years of devoted care. Everyone kept their cameras busy all through this lovely outdoor paradise. Before leaving, we stopped in the seedhouse to purchase souvenir packs and try our luck at developing "green thumbs."

Returning to the city, we walked through the shops admiring the beautiful English woolens, china and other imports. Quite a few came back laden with gifts.

Too soon the steamer whistle sounded the all aboard for our return to Seattle. On the way back we were entertained by some of the Queens men, dressed in kilts and playing their bagpipes. We were a little weary from all the hiking but it was a wonderful day to be remembered.

Our heartfelt thanks to our sisters from Chi collegiate and alum for a memorable convention. May the friendships begun here be lasting ones — but the only way to have a friend is to be one. See you in Detroit in 1960.

TERESA ZENDZIAN

Theresa Zendzian, died August 23, 1958, as a result of a car crash, while vacationing in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

She was a June graduate of the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, Boston, Massachusetts and had successfully completed her state pharmacist's examinations.

Her parents are both pharmacists. Her mother is a member of Alpha Alumnae Chapter.

Besides her parents, she is survived by a sister, Ann, a Boston nurse.

The members of Lambda Kappa Sigma extend to her family their deepest and sincerest sympathy.

CHAPTER REPORTS

ALPHA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi Lambs:

Greetings from Alpha chapter at the beginning of a new school year. All of us had a wonderful summer and hope that you did too.

We had our first meeting during which Claudette Oulette, our president, gave us a report on the convention which she attended this summer.

In the near future, we are planning to have a get-acquainted rush party for freshmen and other non-members. It is to be a card party with prizes and refreshments adding to the fun.

We are sure that you will all join us in regretting the recent death of Theresa Zendzian, a MCP June graduate and a sorority sister.

A committee is being formed to plan the year's sorority schedule. This year we are determined to devote more time on the various Lambda Kappa Sigma rituals. Already we have acquired a triangular candle stick board to be used for the Founders' Day celebration.

A major project for the Alpha chapter this year is to assume a complete set of sorority files and to acquire new officers' notebooks.

We would like to remind you that we still have a number of our well known cookbooks. They are available for $1.00 plus mailing charges.

Best wishes to all Lambs for a happy and successful year.

Regina Galdikas

BETA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

H! Everyone!

I hope you all had an enjoyable summer and are looking forward to an equally fine college year.

Here at Albany, we are busily preparing for the coming year. Foremost in our minds is the rushing and pledging season. Many charming prospective members are with us this fall, and we wish them the very best of luck in all their endeavors.

Our informal welcome party, sponsored by the sorority, will be held soon, and all the girls here are invited to participate.

One of the most highly anticipated events in our fall season is our annual Mother and Daughter Dinner. Last year, our mothers and we were privileged to hear one of our favorite faculty members, Professor Burdette G. Dewell, speak on the importance women have had on the history of our world.

Our semi-annual bake sale will be scheduled sometime before the Christmas holiday season. All the girls here combine their culinary talents to present a truly successful event.

Pharmacy College is also planning an I.F.C. Talent Night, with members from the Panhellenic societies here presenting skits, songs, and dances.

Another highlight in this year's curriculum will be a combined tea, sponsored by the sorority, for the faculty wives and the wives of our married students. Last year this event enjoyed much popularity with everyone concerned. It gave everyone an opportunity to meet each other, a very pleasant experience indeed. Approximately fifty guests were present. After a tour of the pharmacy building, punch and tea cookies were served.

As you can imagine, we are all looking forward to a busy season this year. Making new friends, and seeing old ones again, will be a pleasant part of this new semester.

See you next issue.

Cynthia Spagnoletti

GAMMA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi, Lambs!

We have had quite an active and promising summer with several meetings to discuss plans for the coming year. Our by-laws have been revised, and a building fund has been established at long last.

Our actives are busily planning our booth for the big winter carnival. Arrangements are being made for our annual dance, "Winterlude," to be held at the Morrison Hotel in Chicago, in conjunction with a raffle.

Rushing has started, and the fall tea in honor of the freshmen women was a tremendous success. About twenty-five pretty girls are being rushed this year, and I'm sure they'll prove a credit to our growing chapter.

We're wishing that all other Lambs have as nice a year as ours promises to be.

Fraternally,
Mary Meeker

DELTA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi Lambs!

We at Pitt hope everyone had as wonderful a summer as we did. As we move another step toward our goal we are proud to boast of the popularity of three of our sorority sisters. Terry Krautheim was honored as "Junior Worthy" on Honors Day here at the University of Pittsburgh. Terry was also elected to represent Pitt at the A. Ph. A. convention in Los Angeles, and as the President of our chapter she attended the LKS convention in Seattle this summer. Carole Finelli was elected to Pi Delta Epsilon Honorary Journalism Fraternity. She will serve as historian of that group and also be the editor of our pharmacy school magazine "The Pitt Capsule". Regina Zeolla is business manager for the "Capsule". Congratulations!

We also would like to congratulate the two sisters who were cited for their Q. P. A's of 2.5 or above on recognition day at the school of Pharmacy, they are Margi Namadan and Marlene Litterini. Marlene was initiated into Rho Chi last semester.

We have been busy making plans for our fall rushing of upper class women, and plan to hold our Founders' Day Program in conjunction with the combined get-together of the upperclass women and the freshmen women.

We wish you all a studious and prosperous year, and we'll see you in the next issue.

Maude Wolfe

I want to take this opportunity to thank Chi chapters for the most wonderful time they showed us in Seattle. I can truthfully say that it was the best vacation I ever had and I especially enjoyed meeting all the sisters from other chapters. My only regret is that more of the Lambs couldn't have been there to join in the fun, but perhaps more will be able to attend the convention in Detroit in 1960.

Terry Krautheim

EPSILON COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Well, that time has rolled around once again. What a way to end a wonderful summer. Here we are with a brand new year ahead of us, and Epsilon is just bursting with plans.

An executive meeting was held this summer to plan the activities for the year. Our constitution was revised and has been submitted to the Grand Council for approval. A lot of changes were made and we hope they will improve the condition of our chapter.

Our president Genie Marshall went to the convention and brought back some wonderful ideas. Wish all of us could have been there to compare notes. Genie tells us they had a wonderful time.

But to get back to the business. The girls have started working ahead of time on their skit for the Alumni Frolic in November. It sure would be a feather in our cap if we could win a leg on the Cherry Cup. Wish us luck!

On October 5, we had a rush tea. This is another first for Epsilon Chapter. If all the new girls pledge we will have nine (9) new members. The chapter has been growing by leaps and bounds in the past three years.

Founders' Day was celebrated on October 14 with our alumnae chapter. We were all inspired by the beauty of the ceremony and were drawn closer together.

On the romantic side, two of our members recently became engaged; Millie Petts in May and Pat Kostos in September. Both of them are engaged to boys who graduated from the University of Maryland, School of Pharmacy in June and are members of Phi Delta Chi fraternity. That's keeping it in the family, huh?. Two of our other members were pinned this summer. Lois Tracey and Lois Lee. Looks like it is all play and no work down here, but it really isn't. We sure have our share of studying. I guess it's time to put our noses back into those books.

Elaine Evert

ETA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi Lambs:

It certainly is great to be back in school and see all our sisters again. We have a lot of plans to make this year a happy and profitable one.

Thursday, October 2, everyone came stomping into the school auditorium for Lambda's first social fling of the year. This was our annual Barn Dance, complete with a caller for square dancing and a huge wooden slide which tumbled laughing couples into a pile of hay. There was a constant stream towards our refreshment stand where we had cider, pretzels, and ginger snaps.

We are now in the midst of plans for our first rush party of the season. Our theme is "Circus", and everyone is getting into the spirit by working on their costume.

We are looking forward to a busy year and want to take this opportunity to wish our sisters the best of luck both scholastically and socially. We also wish to thank Chi chapters for their hospitality which was shown our delegate at the convention this summer.

Betty Ann Mason

LAMBDA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi everyone!

Welcome back to the old grind. After finishing the year with a very successful dinner-dance honoring our three seniors and the faculty, preceded by a get together at former president Carol Silveria's home, we are planning for another busy year.

Micheline Filiatrault and Margie Duncan represented us at the convention in Seattle. They had a grand time and enjoyed meeting all of you lucky ones that attended. Many interesting new ideas, especially on fund raising, were brought back.

Our rushing season started with the annual tea, Coke Party, and Pizza Party. Eight girls were informally initiated on October 12.

We are very proud of our Ethel J. Heath Award winner, Mrs. Arlene Berg and new Rho Chi member Margie Duncan, our president.

Our newest project of selling towels to pharmacy and chemistry students is doing very well.

Founders' Day was celebrated on October 14, at which time Ruth Trent became a member by formal initiation.

It looks like a busy semester with studies and activities combined. We are looking forward to an exchange with the Alpha Iota Pi fraternity, a Bake Sale, and making lunches for the APhA picnic.

Joyce Okamoto

MU COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

We have twelve girls back at school this year. Our advisor for this year is Mrs. Reavis. The officers are: President—Jan Ficke, Vice President—JoAnn Kauzlarich, Secretary—Nancy Bailey, Treasurer—Janice Poage, Historian—Marjie Gill.

To start off the year we had Mrs. Dirstine, Western Regional Supervisor, come and speak to us for our Founders' Day Program. We have planned a coffee hour to become acquainted with the new girls majoring in pharmacy. We will be participating in the Pharmacy Mixer and we hope to have some luncheon speaker in the very near future.

Marjie Gill

NU COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi everyone:

Nu Chapter opened the school year with an informal rush party held at the home of LaVonne Spry. Ten freshman girls were invited which increases the feminine membership in the college of pharmacy to twenty-five.

One of the new freshman girls in pharmacy is from Korea. Young Hee Lee has been in this country two years, but we heartily welcome her to the Midwest and to Drake University.

Our president, Jeanette Walters, came back to school with many enthusiastic reports on convention. Since the next convention will be in Detroit, many of us from Nu Chapter are looking forward to attending it.

Speaking of conventions, Nu Chapter will play hostess to the 1959 regional meeting. We certainly are looking forward to meeting all of you.

All fall activities will keep us all quite busy. We have already had our first bake sale and plan to sell coffee and cookies after the A. Ph. A. programs. Pledging and activation was held the nineteenth of October; our Founders' Day Program was held the week before.

We at Drake University are anticipating a successful year, and wish our sisters on other campuses the same success.

Ellene Guse

OMICRON COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Greetings from Omicron:

After a summer of relaxation and fun, the fall semester once again finds us settling down to a normal routine of studying, and planning for the future.

During the summer, surprise personal showers were held for Phyllis Boyer and Marie Wiczorek. Sincere wishes for a happy and prosperous future are sent to the recent Grads.

A wiener roast at Loretta Lorenz's cottage gave the girls a chance to-get-together this summer for barrels of fun.

Prior to registration for classes, several of the members took part in the Orientation Program, presented by the College of Pharmacy, to acquaint new students with the college. The lambs acted as hostesses to the newly accepted students, among which were fifteen prospective pledges.

Our recently elected officers: Gael Driscoll, President; Loretta Lorenz, Vice-President; Dorothy Clarke, Recording Secretary; Bernie Drobot, Corresponding Secretary; and Pat Urda, Treasurer, are now making plans for the annual tea.

'Till the next time, best of luck in the coming semester's activities.

Bernie Drobot

PI COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi Lambs:

This spring has seen the installation of new officers. They are: Antoinette Spagnoletti, President, Marilyn Shamy, Vice President, Elaine Sheedleman, Treasurer and Emily Lyko, Secretary.

On May 15, our annual party in honor of the graduating senior class was held. Refreshments were served and fun was had by all. Heartfelt congratulations are to be extended to the graduates of Pi Chapter as well as to all the graduating lambs on their achievements.

Those wedding bells rang for three of our sisters this August. Marilyn Lockwood changed her name to Mrs. Sandy Reich, Gail Summers became Mrs. Richard Doerr and Hilda Eskowitz became Mrs. David Landsman. Good luck girls!

Joan Del Guidice and Shirley Yanks have accepted internships in hospitals where they will begin their career as hospital pharmacists. Graduating lambs that are to intern in retail pharmacies are: Hilda Eskowitz, Connie Marco, Marilyn Lockwood, Pat Rudko, Evelyn Salerno and Ina Lichenstein.

Pi Chapter has received the first prize in the display contest sponsored by I.F.C. this year at Rutgers. The theme of the winning display was "Women in Pharmacy." We are very proud to have received this honor.

Two successful money making projects were sponsored by Pi Chapter: a cake sale and a box lunch.

As for sports, our sisters were very active. Evelyn Salerno boasted the highest women's bowling average in the league with a great 192 for which she received a trophy at graduation.

Of the two basketball games played one was won while the other lost.

The senior fellows suffered a loss to the lambs in baseball this spring. How could we lose when one of our sisters is pinned to the umpire?

To the surprise of Marilyn Lockwood, a bridal shower was given for her in April.

A very fascinating talk was given by a pharmacist and hand writing analyst. It was very interesting to see how he connected personality with hand writing.

So much for now. This about concludes the report for the Pi Chapter.

Marilyn A. Shamy

TAU COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

We, of Tau Chapter, have been quite busy these past few weeks. The annual University Carnival took place in October. Our sorority worked with the Student Branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association to present a show.

Founders' Day was celebrated in conjunction with the Alumnae Chapter.

We are having a party for all the new women residents and students in the Pharmacy School.

In the near future we plan to hold a Bridge Party — the proceed of this endeavor to be given to the Duquesne University Development Fund.

Sonja Fuchs

CHI COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Chi Chapter has had a busy summer with the honor of the 15th Biennial Convention, held in our city of Seattle. We were certainly happy to meet all of our sisters at the meetings and to get all of the letters of thanks.

We are very proud of Pat Tanac and Marilyn Palmer; Chi alums, who have been elected to Grand offices.

Chi Chapter was also very happy to receive the Efficiency Cup for the third time. This was awarded to Audrey Wade, our president, at the final banquet of the convention and meant that we could keep the cup permanently in our Pharmacy trophy case. A picture of this presentation was in the last issue of Drug Topics.

As we launch into the new year, we are making preparations for Founders' Day. This year the Chi Collegiates are in charge of the refreshments for the alums who are giving the program.

We are having a Salmon Bake with Kappa Psi on October 5, at Carkeek Park. This is to acquaint Freshmen in Pharmacy with the organizations.

We are also holding our annual dessert party for all women in pharmacy and faculty wives on October 23. This is to be held at the home of Mrs. Orr, wife of our Dean of Pharmacy.

Bonnie Bones

ALPHA BETA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Greetings From Alpha Beta Chapter:

Fall is here and it is time to greet new Freshman, renew old acquaintances and think of the social calendar both past and present.

Anita Calvo was initiated as a new member on April 14, 1958.

On April 15, 1958, an installation dinner was held at the Altnaveigh Restaurant in Storrs, Connecticut.

Last Spring Rho Pi Phi and Lambda Kappa Sigma had a booth at the Community Chest Carnival on April 30, 1958 which proved to be a success bringing second prize awarded to the booths making the most money.

On May 5, 1958, a cake sale was held at the College of Pharmacy to raise money for our treasury. The cake sale was enjoyed by all who attended. The remains were few when the sale was over.

On May 18 a tea was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Gilbert, Eastern Regional Supervisor and advisor of Alpha Beta Chapter. Some of the guests present were Mrs. Ruby Milner, Resident Counselor at Mildred French Hall at the University of Connecticut, Professor and Mrs. Nicholas Fenney, faculty advisor, Mr. R. J. Dauphinais and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Calvo of Waterbury.

Anita Calvo was chosen as our delegate to the convention held in Seattle, Washington. Anita took pictures and movies which we are all impatiently waiting to see. Congratulations go to Anita who was chosen Junior Delegate to the Grand Council for the East.

An informal party was held for the incoming Freshman girls in Pharmacy at the home of Anita Calvo in Waterbury on August 17, 1958. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Fenney, faculty advisor, attended the party in addition to sisters, parents, Freshman and Alumni.

This fall we are planning an open meeting at which Dr. Barnett Greenhouse will speak on Oral Diabetic Agents.

A rush party is planned for November.

That is all the news for now. Good luck to all during the coming year.

Fraternally yours,
Marilyn Terry

ALPHA DELTA COLLEGIATE CHAPTERHi Lambs:*

The Alpha Deltas are all back into the swing of school again as we imagine the rest of you are. It seems good to be back and see everyone again after a wonderful summer.

Our rushing started October 7 with the theme of our first party being — "Getting To Know You." The rushes are a great bunch of girls and we hope to see many of them become active.

At our first meeting we had a White Elephant Sale. Each member was asked to bring a wrapped White Elephant and these were auctioned. This was a money making scheme and we added a nice little sum to our treasury besides having loads of fun in the process.

This year we are continuing our joint meetings once a month with Phi Delta Chi, the pharmacy fraternity.

All the Alpha Delt's wish all of you a very successful year.

Barbara Schoening

ALPHA ZETA COLLEGIATE CHAPTERHi Lambs:*

The Lambs of Alpha Zeta Chapter have been twice as busy as the independent girls here at St. Louis. On October 14 we had our usual Founders' Day party in conjunction with our October evening meeting. Also we have planned our calendar for the 1958-59 school term. This includes such trying times as Bake Sales twice monthly and selling chances on our Turkey Raffle, but better days are coming with our Halloween Costume Party and the Sorority's November Night Out.

Other social events which are, shall we say, "on the drawing board", include our Christmas party, annual dance and the Mother-Daughter Banquet. I will be able to report more on these events in the Winter Edition.

By the way, my thanks go to Lambda Chapter of the University of Southern California for the lovely luncheon they sponsored for the LKS delegates at the American Pharmaceutical Association Convention in April.

Bye for now!

Joanne O'Brien

ALPHA ETA COLLEGIATE CHAPTERDear Sorors:*

All of us here at Alpha Eta want to say hello and wish you a wonderful school year. We're all rested after summer recess, and filled with just loads and loads of ideas to make this the best year ever.

We don't know how it happened, but it seems we neglected to notify you of some of the things that happened last semester, so before going into this year's plans, we'd like to bring you up to date.

Lynne Yellin, graduate of '58, was married in December to Jerry Cohn, also a B.C.P. June grad. Lynne also distinguished herself scholastically this June — she won the College Silver Medal, the Henry B. Smith Award, the Joseph Goldberg Award, and the Ethel J. Heath Key — and graduated Magna cum Laude. She was also elected President of Rho Chi during her senior year. It's a wonderful record, and we're all very proud of her.

Judy Kurens, class of '60, was engaged on January 18 to Stan Stern who also attends the College.

'58 grad Betty Eisenberg was married on August 26 to Arthur Greenfield, a candidate for his Ph.D. in Physics at the University of Chicago.

Our new president, Janet Nielsen, attended the L.K.S. Convention this summer, and reports she had a fabulous time. Through Janet we all hope to profit from the convention, with all the new ideas she's brought us.

We welcomed two new sorors in June — Freda Repapinos and Vivian Warren, both class of '61. We know they're going to be great assets to Alpha Eta. Freda was elected pledge-mistress at our annual elections and Vivian is our new treasurer.

We held our Pre-Rush Tea for the girls of the class of '62, and are looking forward to having the girls as pledges very soon. Our Rush Luncheon and Founders' Day Ceremony was held on October 12 at the Hotel Manhattan in N.Y.C., and pledging bids went out Oct. 19.

Our annual Cake Sale was held on November 12. We expect to hold many functions in conjunction with the graduate chapter this year, plans now in the making for our next theatre party.

Guess that pretty well catches you up on the news. Again, best wishes from all of us for a wonderful year.

Fraternally,
Judith Kurens

ALPHA THETA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi Lambs:

First some news of last summer. We continued our money making project of manufacturing placebos, and we also had several business meetings to prevent some of the frantic rush of business with which each fall semester usually starts. It worked out very well, and we heartily recommend the practice to other chapters. Of course we also partied it up a bit; and we rented a cottage on the Lake for several weeks.

We were most pleased and proud to have our present president, Rose Mary Crimaldi, chosen as "Miss Personality" at the National Convention in Seattle.

We are very sorry to report that our advisor of the past several years, Mrs. Marian Lord, is now living in Atlanta, Georgia, since Dr. Lord accepted a teaching position there. However, we were very fortunate in getting Mrs. Pat Rieman as our new advisor. Pat is a part time Pharmacist at Buffalo Mercy Hospital. Part time since she has three little ones at home to care for.

Our first weeks at school were largely taken up with rushing. First we held a get acquainted tea for all women in Pharmacy School. Then we had a "Rx for Fun" pledge party and finally a "South Pacific" party — featuring hula hoops. We are hoping that all girls who attended the parties and will receive bids will accept, thus considerably increasing our numbers and enabling us to have an even more successful year.

Also underway is our annual raffle. And, of course, we're still working on placebos. We have many more irons in the fire, but more about them in the next issue. Til then,

Marie Gruber

ALPHA IOTA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi Everyone:

After a long summer's rest, we Lambs of Alpha Iota are ready to begin a busy year.

It seems we ended last year in a rush of activities. We gave a farewell party for the graduating seniors and for Mrs. McKenna, one of our sponsors, who is leaving us.

"Secrets of the Sea" was the theme of our spring formal. The Dean of Pharmacy, Dr. Edward Claus and Mrs. Claus, another of our sponsors, attended.

We Lambs were quite proud when Shirley Clark, our president, accepted the Scholastic Award presented to our sorority at the Panhellenic banquet last spring. We didn't know that we had done so well grade wise.

This summer was a time of weddings! Quite a few of our gals changed their names.

Ann Holowitz, a '58 graduate, was the first to be married. She picked August 9 as her date. Following her, Pat Zielke and Dick Bashore, a brother Phi Delt, tied the knot on August 23, the same day that Carole Cook chose. Carole too, is a '58 graduate. Jo Thomas and Jerry Dunsmore, another brother Phi Delt said "I do" on September 6. Sherry Waldo was the last one to be married; she became Mrs. Dingham on September 20. Congratulations to them all.

Congrats to Jacquy Vandeneuval and Carole Cook on passing the state board. Marcia Ellis (nee Stoudt) is expecting a visit from the stork any day.

At the moment we are in the midst of preparations for Homecoming. All of our spare time is being spent working on our float for the homecoming parade and practicing for the annual sack race between the sororities. Last year we won the "Little Brown Jug" and we will try to retain possession of it.

Donna Michael attended the National Convention and had a fabulous time.

The A.Ph.A had an interesting program planned for Pharmacy Week, Oct. 6-11. Well known guests spoke to the pharmacy students in the afternoon with a banquet following in the evening.

That's all the news for now. See you soon.

Dolores Zielinski

ALPHA LAMBDA COLLEGIATE CHAPTER

Hi Lambs:

Here we are back again for another year. We all had a wonderful summer in various parts of Canada. One of our members worked in Montreal, another in Alberta, while the rest of us earned our pay in B. C. We did keep together, though by writing a chain letter about our summer experiences. (This turned out to be an excellent idea — perhaps some of you can use it.) Those of us in Vancouver had four enjoyable get-togethers, including a dinner in Chinatown. It's good to see all the crowd together again, though.

Two of our members managed to attend the first few days of the convention, and brought back enthusiastic reports. Jeanne Gagnon, our president, and Gail Bellward, our corresponding secretary, both enjoyed the trip to Seattle and were very glad to meet our American sisters. Thanks again for the wonderful reception you gave them. We feel really a part of the international group now.

We have sixteen girls registered in the first year and are hoping that many of them will join Lambda Kappa Sigma, along with five from the second year. Already we have many activities planned for the year ahead. Pledging was held during the third week in October. Our Alums joined us in our Founders' Day celebration and also with our pledging.

Good Luck to all you "pharmacuties" for the coming year.

Catriona Downie

ALPHA ALUMNAE CHAPTER

Another year starts in our sorority calendar. We have come home from convention with many new ideas and lots of vim and vigor.

The officers of Alpha Alumnae Chapter have met to formulate plans for our social and money-making affairs for the coming year.

We have held a supper meeting at which ten members were present. Plans were made for a joint meeting with Alpha Collegiate Chapter for Founders' Day. This meeting to be held at the college. The photographers will show their pictures of the convention and side trips.

Cora Craven is coming along fine. At present she is visiting with her sister in Rhode Island. She is unable to answer any letters but would be pleased to hear from anyone.

Boston Area P.P.A. had its first fall meeting the last week in October. Elsie Gassiraro of L.K.S. is president this year.

We wish to congratulate all the new national officers and to say that if at anytime Alpha Alum Chapter can be of any assistance to them to please call on us.

Fraternally,
Ruth D. Flaherty

GAMMA ALUMNAE CHAPTER

Gamma conventioners came back to Chicago brimful of news and with memories of much fun in Seattle. Eleanor Leininger Zimmerman of Wauseon, Ohio, attended the convention combining it with her family's motor tour of the West. Cecelia Furmaniak, Phoenix, Arizona, arranged her month's vacation to include the convention, too. During their stay in Seattle the Gammas gave Cecelia a birthday dinner party. Also there was Wanda Sponder, Gary, Indiana, enjoying her first convention. On the Saturday following the convention Harriet Lescauski and Wanda gave our chapter president, Edith Plucinski, a birthday luncheon.

We wish to express our deepest sympathy to Lena Leonardi DiJohn, whose father died in September.

Last June, Lorraine Gribbens, our vice-President, began missionary training. During the summer she left for Borneo to serve as a medical Missionary for the Methodist Church.

Congratulations to Harriet and Edward Kuzlejko, who celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary on August 30.

Early in the spring Harriet Lescauski did a beautiful job as chairman of the card party given by the Alums. The program included a pre-Easter fashion show.

Our collegiate and alumnae presidents have been working together for months studying ways to more closely join together our chapters. A joint meeting to celebrate Founders' Day was planned. Each month some member of the alumnae chapter will be asked to attend the next meeting of the collegiate chapter. At each meeting of the alumnae chapter lately we have had in attendance a member of the collegiate chapter.

The Gamma Alumnae Birthday Party in June marked our alumnae chapter's 30th anniversary. Anna B. Webster, our first president, and Barbara Collins, our first Secretary were present.

Sherlane Stach went to graduate school and won a marriage certificate in August. She is still going to work for her Masters though. Best wishes to her as Mrs. Biskowski.

Nancy A. Lyon

EPSILON ALUMNAE CHAPTER

Our chapter enjoyed a very pleasant summer. We had several dinner meetings, which were well attended, and a joint meeting with our collegiate group. The high lights of our meetings this past season were discussions of the convention—before and after. It must have been wonderful. It is a shame each and every member can't attend them all.

In September, Pearl Chan and Nancy Swiss, two recent graduates, and Mrs. Fumiki Doorenbas, formerly of Alpha Iota Chapter, were our guests at dinner. They are interested in being active in the Alumnae and we hope they will enjoy being part of our group. As a matter of fact, all of the new graduates expressed the desire to join, however several of them were unable to accept our invitation for one reason or another—one gal preferred going on her honeymoon instead.

Best wishes for a pleasant season.

Shirley Greenberg

OMICRON ALUMNAE CHAPTER

The first meeting of the 1958-59 season brought big and wonderful news to the members of Omicron Alumnae Chapter.

The first news concerned the election of Mrs. Julia Pishalski as Grand President of Lambda Kappa Sigma.

The local girls as well as those nationally have known of Julia's splendid devotions to Lambda Kappa Sigma and we are proud and happy of her new Honor.

The second bit of news concerned the 1960 convention. Yes! Detroit is to have the 1960 convention with Omicron collegiate and Omicron Alumnae as co-hostesses.

President Mary Kalinski appointed Misses Helen Wirpsza and Mildred Das as convention co-hostesses of the Alumnae Chapter and our plans are beginning to make the convention interesting and exciting.

As Detroit has grown, the distances between the homes of the members has become greater. In order to accommodate more members at a centrally located place we have decided to hold many of our meetings at Wayne State University Alumni House.

Dean Wilson of Wayne State talked to the girls at a meeting about recruiting for pharmacy, a project adopted by the members.

Helen Rutkowski

TAU ALUMNAE CHAPTER

Hi Sisters: A hearty hello from Tau Alumnae Chapter to all our sisters.

Congratulations to the Chi Chapters on the planning of the National Convention. From what our delegate Joan Atkinson reports back to us it was not only a beautiful trip but the convention activities were fun. She made us stay-at-homes realize that we missed a wonderful affair so there are a great many who are now planning on attending the next convention in Detroit.

We had a busy and enjoyable summer. Our May Mother's Day party at Sally Corey's sisters home started us on the right track. Our party for the recent graduates at the Playhouse proved to be a grand affair. In late June, Adele Wolfe's shower was attended by a great many of the girls. At her wedding in July to Mike Delich she had as an attendant Gerry Manzione.

Our first meeting of the fall was held at the home of Anna Kaiser. We decided at this meeting to aid our little sisters of Tau Collegiate Chapter in their card party in connection with Duquesne University International Card Party. We then made plans for our rummage sale. Kathy Clark then distributed our Christmas card folders so that we can start selling our cards early this year. Strange as it seems we still had time that night for a friendly chit-chat.

Best wishes to all for many happy days.

Rosetta L. Manzione

PHI ALUMNAE CHAPTER

Greetings to all of you!

Time for fall activities again, after some summer fun. We, here in Indiana, are not too sure if we have had summer yet or not. But the leaves are turning to beautiful colors, so I guess it's time for the fall season. Anyway—we are sure happy over winning the Efficiency Gavel at the Convention in July. The City of Seattle must be a beautiful and fabulous place and from the reports brought back it was a truly wonderful convention.

First, on the agenda for fall, is a rummage sale to be held later this fall. Proceeds will help us send our sponsored child to Noble School for Retarded Children. Besides this, we are selling candy which comes in decorated cans which later can be used as canisters for many things.

Two of our new alumnae members changed their Miss to a Mrs. this summer. Sandra Haas and Margaret Lynch are the lucky ones. Best wishes and much happiness to both of you!

All of us in the Pharmacy Profession, lost one of the most beloved and brilliant men pharmacy has ever had. Dean Edward H. Niles died September 23 after months of illness. He was Dean of the Butler College of Pharmacy until 1952, after which he was Dean Emeritus of the Pharmacy College. He had contributed so much of his wealth of knowledge and time during these years to all phases of pharmacy that he will be remembered always for making Pharmacy such a wonderful profession. Our deepest sympathy goes to Mrs. Niles, who is one of our charter members.

The Alumnae Chapter helped the collegiate chapter last May to initiate four new girls. Had a wonderful dinner before the ceremony at a place called the Heritage. We are very happy to welcome these girls into Lambda Kappa Sigma.

That's about all for now. See you next issue.

Betty Bumb

ALPHA BETA ALUMNAE CHAPTER

Greetings Sister Lambs:

With the fall season upon us, Alpha Beta Alumnae Chapter is busily getting ready for our joint Alumnae-Collegiate Founders' Day program at the University of Connecticut campus.

We hope to have a successful event and nice clear weather as IT RAINS EVERY MEETING.

At our June meeting we held our election of officers and elected Eleanor Saley as our delegate to the Biennial Convention in Seattle. It was an enjoyable evening with dinner at the Pot Latch Restaurant in Newington.

In August, we had a cook-out at the home of Dolores Schuster. It turned out to be a cook-in due to rain. At this meeting we planned our social Calendar for the Winter and also discussed money-raising projects. The Convention reports brought home by our delegate, made everyone green with envy. It was nice to have four of our new grads present at this excellent meeting. They were: Merece Le Geyt, Claire Leone, Anne McMullen, and Dorothy Nishti.

The September meeting found us at the home of Elinor Nemser Adelstein, who took time out from her adorable 11 month old twins, to be a charming cake and coffee hostess. Present were two of our Collegiate sisters—Marilyn Terry and Doris Yanishewski. We enjoyed viewing a batch of snaps taken by Mary Gilbert on the convention trip. The business of the day included our decision to sell Christmas Cards and candy cannisters. We also raffled off two small gift donations to add additional money to the Treasury.

Best wishes to all our sisters for a most successful year and a joyous Holiday Season. More news about the Alpha Beta Alums in the winter issue.

Eleanor Saley

ALPHA ETA ALUMNAE CHAPTER

After a wonderful summer, we are ready to get down to business again. During the summer months we didn't have any meetings but we managed to get together with our families for a beach party. We conveniently met at Baila Mandel's home, which is about two blocks away from the beach and then spent the rest of the day enjoying the sun.

Our first meeting of the season was held at Roberta Lerea's home. Janet Neilson, President of our Collegiate Chapter was there at the meeting and told of her wonderful trip to the Seattle Sorority convention. She made a cute scrapbook of her itinerary and brought back Sorority reports which gave us an idea of the work that was accomplished there.

Ours has been a theater going Sorority. Since we live close to the theater district we manage to get tickets to some of the Broadway shows. Recently we had a large turnout of members to see "Say Darling" at which we all had an enjoyable night out.

We hope all chapters have a successful season.

Fraternally,
Adrienne Alexanian
