CALL TO CONVENTION

Dear Sisters,

Convention is a most exciting, entertaining and most important learning experience! I invite all of our sisters to join us in Seattle to share in this wonderful experience. I hear of so many delegates who return to their chapters and through their enthusiasm give their chapter a new spark of interest and a genuine commitment for an exciting future. Renewed interest from our Stray Lambs also promises to bring more enthusiastic sisters to Seattle!

To make convention extra special for your chapter, why not send a delegation instead of just one delegate? There are many innovative ways in which the chapter can encourage attendance. I recall conventions over the last twelve years where we have had delegations of ten or more sisters flying coast to coast. Sharing of the delegate travel fund, special chapter fund raising events, and combining the convention with your vacation are all ideas that can be investigated for increasing the numbers of sisters able to attend our Seattle meeting. Be innovative! Most importantly bring every sister interested to Seattle.

I look forward along with Grand Council to seeing you all in Seattle! Chi Chapters have worked especially hard to make this a most fulfilling visit for us and the best convention ever.

Fraternally,

Mary Gear

COLLEGIATE CHAPTER NEWS

When classes began in the fall for the Alpha Beta Chapter, we had twenty-two members: we pledged and initiated thirteen new members. Three members graduated in December and six will graduate in May. We pledge once a year in the fall. We had five members attending the Northeast Regional Meeting in the Poconos. Our chapter was visited in February 1984 by Michelle Debalko, the Northeast Regional Supervisor. Chapter dues are $40.00 per year. Chapter initiation fee is $45.00. We contributed $50.00 to Project Hope. The Ethel J. Heath key was awarded to Brenda Gajewski.

The sisters of Tau Chapter have been busy with spring projects and activities. The spring semester began with two rush parties. The first rush had a "warm-up" theme where sisters and guests dressed comfortably in their sweatsuits. The second rush was a formal affair in which the professional side of LKS was presented. Another event of the semester was a mixer with the brothers of the Delta Epsilon chapter of Kappa Psi in the form of an ice skating party. Events planned for the remainder of spring semester include a date party, a parent tea, and a dinner dance. For Hygeia Day, Tau chapter sponsored a speaker on the subject of prescription drug abuse. To make all these activities possible, Tau's fund raisers include lobby sales, candy sales, hoagie sales, raffle tickets, and a flea market.

Congratulations are in order for Tau's fourteen new sisters who were initiated on March 2nd. This new addition gives Tau a total of seventy five sisters. As the membership in Tau chapter increases, so does the support for both Project Hope and the development of professional projects. To accomplish the former, Tau has added a Project Hope Committee under the direction of 1st Vice President Joyce Hahn. The main goal of the committee is to increase chapter contributions. It also sets up showcases in various parts of the campus for the promotion of Project Hope. Meanwhile, the Professional Committee is busy presenting and updating Tau's "What is a Pharmacist?" program.

Finally, Tau chapter would like to recognize Miss Sally Corey for fifty years of distinguished service to LKS. Her membership through the years serves as an inspiration not only to the Tau chapter, but to sisters everywhere.

We wish the best of luck to all the graduating seniors for success and happiness in the future.

Members of the Fall 1983 Alpha Kappa Chapter Pledge Class. 52 women pledged, and 50 women were initiated, setting a record for any Lambda Kappa Sigma chapter to date.

Greetings from Alpha Kappa Chapter in Athens, Georgia. This academic year has been an exciting one, as we hosted the Southern Regional Convention, began an Alumnae Chapter, and had a record-setting Pledge Class.

The Alumnae Chapter was installed at a banquet during the Southern Regional Convention. All Lambda Kappa Sigma Alumnae in the Athens area are encouraged to contact Louanne Betz.

This fall AK Chapter pledged 52 women, 50 of whom were initiated November 9, 1983. This is the largest pledge class of any Lambda Kappa Sigma Chapter to date. AK Chapter began a new pledge education program in 1983, so the women initiated are very knowledgeable concerning LKS procedure and history.

Recently, AK Chapter has become involved in the Hospice Program in Athens. This organization cares for patients with life-threatening diseases, particularly cancer. Many sisters are spending time with these patients in order to give the family members a needed break. We urge other LKS chapters to find out about hospice programs in their areas.

The Alpha Gamma Chapter of Lambda Kappa Sigma started off a successful spring semester with the February 10 initiation of nineteen new members. The new members were honored at a party following initiation.

The new initiates are: Lisa Robbins, Donna Agee, Lisa Allen, Mary Beck, Diahann Betts, Tracy Chasteen, Robin Collins, Aileen Duffey, Lou Carol Herndon, Pam Hill, Lisa McAnally, Sandra Moore, Linda Morris, Patty Leigh Pegues, Vicki Pritchett, Karen Riddle, Vanessa Seals, Sabrina Jane Ward, and Donna Wood.

New Pledges for the spring semester are: Debbie Smith, Gina Adams, Tammy Needham, Linda Duff and Denise Durham.

Greetings from Alpha Iota

The Centennial homecoming at Ferris State was a big success, with the Lambs adding their special touch to the festivities. We sold our homecoming mums as usual, selling out before the Homecoming Parade started, and making $300.00 for Project Hope. We held our first homecoming reception in many years, the dinner-dance was enjoyed by all who attended.

We had some super social events this fall, such as the Casino Party with the Pikes, and Halloween Parties with the men of Kappa Psi and Phi Delta Chi. Original rush parties were a fun part of the quarter, the BYOB (Bring Your Own Banana) rush was lots of fun as everyone enjoyed assembling their own banana split. We had seven pledges this fall complete the the pledging program.

The fall quarter finished out with our quarterly blood drive with the Phi Deltas, and our first guest speaker, Jim Raden of Bergen-Brunswick speaking on "The Services and Functions of a Wholesaler."

Winter quarter arrived with Christmas right around the corner. A house decorating party was held with the KY's, and our annual pot luck Christmas party was complete with a Kappa Psi Santa. Fund raising was also a big part of the year as everyone looked forward to Winter Formal.

Professional activities were in full swing, with two guest speakers, Richard Byington of White and White speaking on the "Marketing Trends in Home Health Care," and Linda Veresh of Dow Corning's Medical Products on "The Medical Therapeutics of Silicone Implants." We helped the men of Phi Delta Chi with the annual Christmas party for underprivileged children, and the winter blood drive. Some of our sisters are continuing with the Adopt-a-Grandparent program at the local nursing home. The Ferris Pharmacy museum was opened this year, and the sisters of Alpha Iota worked one day a week to keep the museum open to the public. The second annual Hopscotch for Hope was held on Feb. 11th and $400.00 was raised for Project Hope.

Winter Formal was held at the Amway Grand Plaza in Grand Rapids. The following awards were given out at the banquet: Karen Grise-Lamb of the Year, Brenda Beaty-Pledge of the Year, Diane Reeves-Executive Board Award for Outstanding Service.

Elections were held at the end of winter quarter with our new Executive Board:

Amy Kaap-President
Chris Cramer-Vice President
Jennifer Taylor-Secretary
Diane Reeves-Editor
Sally Schoenknecht-Treasurer
Jan Chargo-Sargent at Arms

At the start of spring quarter, Alpha Iota chapter was awarded the Mary E. McClland Tray at the Panhellenic Banquet. This award is given to the outstanding sorority on campus. Congratulations also go out to our past president Karen Grise, as she walked away with the Greek Woman of the Year Award.

Diane M. Reeves, Editor

Alpha Nu continued their Public Service Project by presenting the Breast Self-Exam Program to the Richmond Younger Women's Club on November 9.

The Alpha Nu Chapter held its annual Christmas Dance at Spindletop Hall on November 2. A Silver Jubilee Banquet was held before the dance to celebrate the chapter's 25th anniversary. The whole night proved to be a huge success as many honored guests attended. Among those attending were Mary Gear, Grand President; Avis Ericson, Grand Secretary and Becky Hunter, Southern Regional Supervisor. The chapter was very pleased to have two of its founding members Mrs. Lucy Amburgey and Mrs. Pat Chadwell present. Also attending was another Alpha Nu alumna, Ginger Scott, president elect of KPhA.

At the Silver Jubilee Banquet, Dr. William Lubawy was inducted as a patron member; Dr. Peggy Piascik was inducted as an honorary member and Dr. Ann Amerson as an alumni member.

Another important guest was R. Paul Baumgartner, Jr., Manager of Pharmacy Relations at Merck Sharp and Dohme. Mr. Baumgartner presented the Merck Sharp and Dohme "Pharmacist Achievement Award" to Avis Ericson for outstanding contribution to the pharmacy profession.

Becky Hunter was presented the Most Active Alumni Award. Mrs. Gloria Doughty, RPh, fraternity sponsor; Dr. Ann Amerson, faculty advisor and Dr. Ann Patterson, co-faculty advisor received special recognition for contribution to the fraternity and were each presented with a certificate.

At the first meeting of the spring semester Myra Miller and Karen Boll were recognized as recipients of the Cora Cravens Scholarships. At the meeting as part of a Big Sis-Little Sis Program, a consultant for Mary Kay Cosmetics gave a program in which she gave makeovers to several members.

Initiation was held on February 20, and new officers were elected: Myra Miller, President; Juliana Pantoja, First Vice-President; Jane Smith, Second Vice President; Wynne Coffey, Corresponding Secretary; Kim Fitzgerald, Recording Secretary; Renee Powell, Treasurer; Susan Asher, Historian and Janet Bradford, Chaplain.

A very successful Mother-Daughter banquet was held on February 26 at the Campbell House Inn. Sabrina Ramey, area wardrobe coordinator consultant, from Casual Corner gave a program on Wardrobe Analysis and Closet Inventory.

Among awards presented were: Becky Johnson, President's Award; Sarah Goldstein, Ruth Davis Flaherty Award and Janie Smith, Most Active Pledge Award. Three advisors' awards were also given. Brenda Pinter received the Lamb Award and Leanne Pullins and Karen Boll received Special Recognition Awards. Leanne Pullins, president of Alpha Nu chapter, presented Dr. Ann Amerson, faculty advisor and Mrs. Gloria Doughty, fraternity sponsor with Special Recognition Awards and, finally, the new officers for the coming year were installed.

Pat Landers operating one of the wheels at Casino Night.

Hello from Alpha Lambda Chapter. Since January we have been very busy. First, Casino Night — This annual gambling night is our major fund raiser. This year Pat Landers came up to see our operation and ended up running one of the wheels that night. It was a great success allowing us to send a little more than $1200.00 to our charity, plus making other profits.

Next came Manufacture's Night. This is when representatives from pharmaceutical manufacturers come and display their products. This year it was bigger than previous years with 22 companies being represented. From the profits here we are able to sponsor a luncheon at the summer convention.

Two weeks later we sponsored a seminar for the faculty and students in pharmacy on "Drugs in the Elderly." This took place at lunch time for two hours.

We have two more lunch time speakers coming to speak to our LKS members this year.

Since we finish in April, the elections for next years executive has been organized.

See you all at the convention this summer.

Sherry Kilik (Historian)
Alpha Lambda Chapter

Greetings from Nu chapter, we are proud to announce our new actives to the chapter. They are Colleen Fitzgerald, Sally Hayes, Michelle Hughes, and Bobbi Whitcher. We also have four new pledges - they are Pat Briick, Cathy Eakins, Mary Grubisch, and Deb Middleton.

Besides our new members, we have been busy with other activities. On February 17-18, we had a Mini-regional with Alpha Zeta chapter. We discussed and compared chapter activities. We also helped with the Residence Hall Association at Drake with their blood drive.

In March we participated in SAPHa's Health Fair at a local mall. We are currently working on Hopscotch for Hope, and planning to hop on campus. We are also planning on having pharmacy faculty hopping with us.

We are having our Spring formal with the Drake chapter of Kappa Psi, and having a fun time.

Ruth Davies Flaherty Award

The Grand Council has approved a new chapter award for loyalty and service. This is intended to be presented on the local level, and will be called the Ruth Davies Flaherty Award. Ruth Flaherty is a past Grand President of LKS and continues to foster her loyalty and service to Lambda Kappa Sigma. More information and specifics will be coming from the Grand President soon, concerning this award.

Here's hoping we'll see many students from your school actively participate in LKS throughout their collegiate and alumnae years.

Patricia Clancy Kienle
Grand Vice President

Position Available

We are seeking applications for a part-time Executive Director of Lambda Kappa Sigma Fraternity. Position beginning August 1, 1984. Position pending approval of funding by convention body. Previous experience in association management necessary. Job description available upon request: Patricia C. Kienle, Chair, Executive Director/International Office Development Committee, Bellefonte Apartments, Venezia C4, Scranton, PA 18505.

Why an Annual Fund?

That question has been asked of me more and more over the past few months as Lambda Kappa Sigma continues to request the support of each alumna.

Einstein once said, "A hundred times a day I remind myself that my inner and outer life depend on the labors of other men, living and dead, and that I must exert myself in order to give in the same measure as I have received and am receiving."

Lambda Kappa Sigma is like that. Over the years, our Fraternity has depended on the labors — and support — of alumnae for its strength. A Fraternity experience is, by its very nature, a personal thing. Young women are given an opportunity to define and refine their leadership, professional and interpersonal skills in an atmosphere of friendship and involvement. Relationships and skills acquired in those few, fleeting years on campus last a lifetime...enriching the lives and careers of each member.

With each of us, somewhere along the line came the realization that life these days can't be defined in a "do-it-yourself" book. Most everyone has that special person in her past (or present)...the employer who had enough confidence in you to give you a start. Maybe a new friend who has helped make a traumatic move to a new city a little more bearable. Even the college friend in your freshman year who made the first few weeks on campus a little less nerve-racking and a lot more enjoyable.

Lambda Kappa Sigma isn't a "do-it-yourself" project either. Each year, a new class of Lambs become alumnae, and a new group of younger women are initiated. As such, leadership, membership and attitudes change, and the younger members look to alumnae for guidance and support so they might enjoy the same benefits as those before them.

It's easy to look at today's pharmacy student making discoveries about the importance of their own Lambda Kappa Sigma experience. Less visible is a spirit of confidence and enthusiasm bringing the visions of these young women into focus, and creating realities of dreams. This spirit today, as in the past, is buoyed, in large measure by increasing alumnae support and interest.

In 1983, Lambda Kappa Sigma embarked upon an important new step towards ensuring the Fraternity's future. The Campaign for Progress was begun to augment the Alumnae Dues program to help Lambda Kappa Sigma meet the ever-increasing demands of excellence on our organization. This program will be annual in nature, and each of us will be asked to participate each year.

Simply stated, the program provides the flow of resources which make the chemistry work. Imagination. Creativity. Purpose. It allows Lambda Kappa Sigma to look to the future with a certainty that our special experience will continue to help foster tomorrow's leaders in the pharmacy field.

Why then, many of us ask, does the Fraternity have an "annual program? Couldn't we all give just once and be done with it?"

The answer is simple. Collegiate dues and initiation fees — long the Fraternity's traditional revenue source — simply cannot accomplish what they once did. There is a limit to what we can expect from collegians. Differences between fees and on-going operational revenue requirements have to be met from other sources. To do otherwise would price Lambda Kappa Sigma out of competition on campus after campus.

Success is multi-dimensional. In order to offer a well-rounded experience to our members, we must keep in tune with the needs, desires, and aspirations of today's young women — and at the same time maintain solid lines of communications and service to our alumnae. And not just from time to time. Continually.

The Campaign for Progress is especially important to annual giving because it allows each of our alumnae to participate in a wide variety of Fraternity programs by giving on an annual basis. Dollars can be channeled to areas where most needed.

"Then what's the difference between the Alumnae Dues/Campaign for Progress and the Lambda Kappa Sigma Educational Trust?"

Recently, I got a note from an alumna, "I gave to the Campaign for Progress earlier last year and then got a Trust appeal. I tossed it away because I felt I had already given and that the money from both appeals really went into one pot anyway."

Well, yes and no. It's true, the Trust and Dues/Campaign for Progress both strive to ensure the growth of Lambda Kappa Sigma. But fact is, dollars to each fund accomplish markedly different goals.

As mentioned, dollars from the Dues and Campaign for Progress go towards operational needs — chapter and member services, expansion and support of our volunteer network. As such, these dollars are channeled to programs in support of chapter and member services. For instance, last year, we reactivated collegiate chapters at Butler (Phi), University of Washington (Chi), and began to colonize at Northeastern (Alpha Rho) and reactivated one alumnae chapter at University of the Pacific (Alpha Xi). A new alumnae chapter was chartered at the University of Georgia (Alpha Kappa). We look forward to more expansion. Additional funds to help support this expansion are needed. The Triangle and other printed public relations materials such as our Prospectus were reformatted and updated. The list goes on!

The Trust, however, seeks to acquire tax deductible gifts for future goals for use in leadership and personal development programs, scholarships, educational workshops and related areas. These programs augment Fraternity activity, with the goal of expanding and improving the quality of our members' fraternity experience. Trust programs, properly supported, can ensure Lambda Kappa Sigma does its share in forming the leadership in tomorrow's pharmaceutical community and society.

Lofty goals? Absolutely. We think our members deserve the very best!

And to accomplish this, LKS turns to its alumnae. With proper support, we can meet the increased challenges of creative leadership development, imaginative programming for alumnae and collegiates and a series of leadership and character development programs designed to help prepare our young women for pharmaceutical or the post-graduate work of their choice.

Both funds present all alumnae with an opportunity to participate in influencing the future of our Fraternity. Not just for tomorrow but for many tomorrows; thus ensuring the history and heritage of Lambda Kappa Sigma and our special experience will be available to generations yet to come.

Annual giving is not a luxury. It is a necessity. As such, it's not so much a few of us performing miracles as it is many of us doing what we can.

Faternally,

Mary Grear
Grand President

The "Tinman" won't rust in the summer sunshine of the "Emerald City!" You can lead the "Cowardly Lion up the yellow brick road" to the Pike Place Market. It is a public market composed of old fashioned stalls where fresh produce, seafood, and arts and crafts items are sold.

We end our journey on "the yellow brick road" at the Holiday Inn Crowne Plaza where the convention activities will take place. We gave you a glimpse of the program and would really love to see all of you here this summer! Now, "click your heels three times" and remember "there is no place like Seattle", Washington on July 24th through 28th to have the 28th Biennial Convention. See you there!

ALUMNAE NEWS

This summer's convention in Seattle will bring an added dimension of individual ideas into the voting process. For the first time, our Alumnae-At-Large, the Stray Lambs, will have delegate votes.

Several years ago only a handful -less than a dozen- of our alumnae participated as Stray Lambs. Since the establishment of the International Office of Lambda Kappa Sigma and the fantastic job done by the office with the help of our computer, we have been able to locate and to re-establish interest in LKS for many alumnae.

At the upcoming Seattle convention, seven Stray Lamb delegates may vote on issues affecting the fraternity. A procedure has been set up to notify interested Stray Lambs. If you are a dues- paid Stray Lamb & will be attending the convention this summer, please consider being a delegate. Further information can be obtained from Patricia Kienle, Bellefonte Apt, Venezia C-4, Scranton PA 18505.

Phi Alumnae Chapter

Since our last chapter report we have been busy. In November we held a Linen Party Fundraiser which was open to members and their friends. Some of the special holiday items served as nice Christmas gifts, and all of the available table mats, cloths, napkins, etc., were functional and reasonable — plus our treasury received 10% of the sales. During December we celebrated the holiday season with a traditional party to which each member brought a platter of her favorite hors d'oeuvre. The first three meetings of the new year have been Continuing Education programs; this year they have a common theme of diabetes. Different speakers have covered topics such as: updates on insulin therapy, insulin pumps and diabetic monitoring devices, Humulin, and the importance of patient and public awareness of proper diabetic management. Our chapter again will award a $50.00 scholarship to the outstanding fourth-year girl in the collegiate chapter at Butler. We look forward to an interesting and productive spring, as well as the convention this summer.

Our Annual Re-union dinner was held in September at Pantele's restaurant in Dearborn. Nearly 30 alumni attended. In January, 1984 we had 22 sisters attend our dinner meeting. It was announced that June Young, a collegiate at Wayne, received our alumni scholarship.

In February we submitted information to the Grand Council about an alumni initiate. We hope that the reply will be a favorable one.

Our president, Marlene Fichter, is involved in a task force called Pharmacists Helping Pharmacists. It includes the three pharmacy schools in Michigan: University of Michigan, Ferris and Wayne State and concerns the problems of pharmacists troubled with alcohol and drugs.

The Hygeia program planned the end of March had our Midwestern Regional Supervisor, Gloria Bernstein, there at that time. And in April we have a theater party scheduled to see "More Steps in Time".

Several alums are looking forward to the Biennial in Seattle. We are delighted to have two alums who will be receiving their 50 year certificates: Julia Pishalski and Eleanor Siwan.

1983 EASTERN REGIONAL MEETING

The Northeastern and Mid eastern chapters of LKS held a combined regional convention in the POCONO MOUNTAINS. The mountains were beautiful the weekend of October 1st and 2nd. The weather, however, was not on our side. Rain and fog welcomed us Friday evening and stayed with us until late Sunday morning.

SATURDAY: Well, it was early to rise for all the sisters and alums, especially those from TAU who only arrived at 12:30 am the night before. Everyone reacquainted themselves over hot coffee and danishes.

The meetings began precisely at 9:00 am after the fraternity prayer was said. The Grand Council presented their slide show introducing each member. It was put together very well and everyone thought it was great. IT IS AVAILABLE TO ALL CHAPTERS!!!!

Collegiate and Alumnae reports were given and there was a discussion of problems (both collegiates and alums). THE RELATIONSHIP OF COLLEGIATES AND ALUMS IS VERY IMPORTANT. Both groups have much to offer each other. COMMUNICATION IS THE KEY FACTOR. Alumnae and graduating sisters must work to keep in touch. There was some talk of keeping a directory of all graduates for both the collegiate and alumnae chapters.

SEE YOU IN SEATTLE — MAYBE... It will take a lot of money to get the National Convention off the ground and get the girls from the East Coast to the West Coast (somewhere around $30,000). The COOKBOOKS were put together to help with this financial situation. PLEASE SELL THOSE COOKBOOKS — EVERYONE WILL BENEFIT!!! They are great gifts for the holidays. Someone suggested having a sale at a local shopping mall.

Fund raising was discussed — TAU had a fall flea market in which everything they made was clear profit — TAU has a summer newsletter in which they include tickets for a 50:50 raffle — valentines, candy canes, cookies, etc. delivered by the sisters is also a fun way to make money. YOU NEED SOME KIND OF GIMMICK OR SLOGAN. Summer projects are good because you are spread out and are not bombarding the same people for donations.

The entire weekend was very successful.

LKS Educational Trust Report

Dear Sisters and Friends of Lambda Kappa Sigma:

Our most sincere thanks to you for your support to the Lambda Kappa Sigma Educational Trust. Through the generous contributions of our sisters and supportive friends in the past years we will see an increase in the number of Cora E. Craven grants to the colleges, and the B. Olive Cole grant for graduate students.

Last year we were able to increase the amount of the Craven grants to $300 each and the Cole grant to $500. The committee was happy to recommend that we issue a total of 18 Craven grants, increasing the number by 6.

I would like to take advantage of this opportunity to thank the many members who are continuously contributing to the Trust. Special thanks also to the Lambda Kappa Sigma chapters who have generously supported us constantly. It is really appreciated since it gives all of us a chance to help our own members.

In our present drive to keep the "spark" alive, here is a list of those special alums and chapters who as of this mailing are helping to give our members the opportunity and support.

CONVENTION TRAVEL PLANS

We have selected Fugazy International Travel of New Haven, Connecticut, to handle our airfare travel to the biennial convention because of their comprehensive services and commitment to securing the lowest possible airfares for the Fraternity and its members. All delegate airfares will be billed directly to the Fraternity. Non-delegates are encouraged to utilize the Fugazy services including a toll free phone number and have their fares billed to them personally. By increasing our volume of reservations through Fugazy we will be able to negotiate airfares below the advertised discount fares of the airlines.

Lambda Kappa Sigma will reimburse delegates the lowest applicable fare unless it is not available, then the delegate will be reimbursed round trip coach class fare. Discount fares should be booked as far in advance as possible with a minimum of sixteen days in advance. Reimbursement for chapter delegates will be based on the location of your chapter. If additional side trips are planned or the sister is traveling from a city other than that of chapter origin and the travel cost is more, the fraternity will be billed for the applicable amount and the delegate will be liable for the balance. Travel expenses to and from the airport will be the delegates responsibility.

For those delegates not traveling by air to convention, reimbursement will be made directly to you by the Grand Treasurer, Nancy Horst. When sending convention credentials to the Grand Treasurer, be sure to indicate that travel will be by car. The appropriate reimbursement will be mailed directly to you in June.

Tommy Gianfriddo of Fugazy will be our personal travel consultant. When calling Fugazy for reservations please ask for Tommy G. or Karen Bormanis. They will be available Monday through Friday 9:AM to 5:30 PM. If not available when you call leave your name and number and they will return your call. Be sure to identify yourself as a member of Lambda Kappa Sigma and indicate that you have called to arrange convention travel.

At the airport, there is an airporter bus running every half hour. It will go directly to the hotel — cost $4.75.
